

MISS BOTTS TAKES ALL THE BLAME FOR MCGINNIS ESCAPE

Testifies She Bought Tickets for Elopement, Desiring to Get Him as Far Away From Wife as Possible.

MRS. MCGINNIS HEARS HER TELL OF LOVE

Former Lieutenant's Love Letters to Girl After Arrest Introduced—She Accuses U. S. Agents.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—Miss Esther Botts, 19 years old, of 1440 Russell avenue, St. Louis, whose affair with former Lieut. Miss Y. McGinnis of St. Louis, has brought her trial here in the Federal court on charges of violating the Mann act, took the witness stand yesterday afternoon and, to the surprise of prosecuting officers, who regarded her as their witness, expressed her love for the defendant, and assumed responsibility for his action last July in eloping to this city with her after deserting his wife.

The girl, who was arrested with McGinnis, who served with the 158th (St. Louis) Infantry, in an apartment here last January by agents of the Department of Justice who were seeking them at the request of Mrs. McGinnis, told of her affection for McGinnis without hesitation and unmoved by the presence of the wife, who sat behind the defendant in the courtroom.

Miss Botts' appearance on the stand was the occasion of her first face-to-face meeting with the wife of her admirer. Their eyes frequently met as the girl recited the events which preceded and followed their flight from St. Louis.

Wanted to Take Him From Wife.
"I like him very much and wanted to get him as far away from St. Louis and his wife as I could," she testified, in response to a question as to why she had eloped with McGinnis. "I suggested that we come out to California because I wanted to keep him myself."

"Are you still infatuated with McGinnis?" she was asked.
"I like him very much," she replied.

The witness declared that she not only suggested the Western trip, but had actually purchased the tickets. She confronted with statements alleged to have been made by her at the time of her arrest, in which she was reported as declaring McGinnis induced her to come to California on the plea that their elopement would cause Mrs. McGinnis to obtain a divorce, Miss Botts said she could not recall them. "I was antagonized and excited at the time," was her explanation.

Says She Bought Tickets.
She testified that they went from St. Louis to Des Moines, where McGinnis became ill. In a few days, she said, he was able to resume their trip, and she again purchased the tickets which brought them West.

The witness digressed from her recital of the trip to accuse one of the local agents of the Department of Justice with having taken her to his office at 10 o'clock one night shortly after her arrest, where he offered her a drink of whiskey. She asserted that when she declined, the agent proposed a visit to a "speakeasy" show, and despite her desire to attend a moving picture performance, compelled her to go to a vaudeville house.

Questioned About Letters.
She was questioned about love letters sent to her by McGinnis after his release on bond and while she was held as a witness at the detention house on Angel Island. The letters were filled with endearing terms and bore such signatures as "Chong" and "Virgie." Miss Botts was frequently addressed in the missives as "Dollie."

McGinnis, in the letters, which were seized by Federal agents, told of his efforts to obtain her release and expressed his hope that they would one day be reunited.
"Oh, honey," wrote McGinnis, "why is it this way? Why cannot we go back to the old days when we were so happy? All I think of you, you all the time. Dollie, are you going to wait for me? Will you write to me always, and no matter what Bill or anyone else says, will you be true to me and wait for me? What else is there in this world for us but each other?"

"It won't be long if it comes to the worst, honey. Tell me, tell me truly, will you keep all your promises and be true, just like you said? If I know you love me and are waiting, I am satisfied."

Elsewhere McGinnis wrote that he wanted "to prove that I am your 'Chong' always, now and forever." The letters, according to Assistant United States District Attorney Ben Geis, were written after the Government had refused to release Miss Botts on bond because she refused to return to her mother in St. Louis until the time for the trial. E. S. Blanchford, head of the San Francisco branch of the Department of Justice, said that it was feared Miss Botts would join McGinnis, if released.

The girl was followed on the witness stand by railroad employees, who identified McGinnis as the one who had purchased the tickets. This was done to disprove the girl's contention that she financed the trip. The trial then was halted and adjournment taken until Monday.

Wealthy Republican Senator Found Guilty in Election Fraud Case

TRUMAN H. NEWBERRY.

McGinnis, in an interview with the Post-Dispatch correspondent told of being shot several times through the thighs in a charge upon a German machine gun nest in the Argonne Forest and of being captured later. He also told of his acquaintance with Miss Botts.

"Following return from overseas I was assigned to military hospitals at Des Moines and St. Louis," he said. "After undergoing four operations I was discharged on account of physical disability on June 25 last. I resumed my former occupation with the M. K. & T Railroad in St. Louis. I soon found I was too nervous to work. I left St. Louis July 22 with Miss Botts and after that I do not remember much of what happened."

Says He Was Very Ill.
"I recall that I was extremely ill at Des Moines and again at Cheyenne, Wyo., and had to leave the train. I met Miss Botts in August, 1917, just before leaving a training camp. She was employed as a stenographer to take the place of one of the men in the office where I worked."

McGinnis and Miss Botts lived together at 429 Bush street, San Francisco. They had resided there since Aug. 3 last. He was employed by a cement concern in a small town in central California and spent most of his time there. He became ill late in October last and went to a hospital Nov. 4.

When arrested Miss Botts declared her love for McGinnis. A few days later, when she was shown letters written to McGinnis in California by his wife, acknowledging receipt of Liberty Bonds and a Christmas present, the girl denounced him. It was her statement on this occasion that she could not recall on the witness stand.

McGinnis and his wife have been staying at a local hotel and appear to be on the best of terms. Mrs. McGinnis, in an interview given to the Post-Dispatch and published yesterday, attributed her husband's elopement to mental derangement resulting from his wounds. She expressed a desire to "be with him to the last" and declared she bore no resentment toward the girl.

The defense will be based on McGinnis' alleged mental ailment.

MISS MORGAN HERE SHORT TIME

Gets Generous Response in Texas to Appeal for Funds for France.
Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of the late J. Pierpont Morgan, who has been touring the Southwest in the interest of the American Society for the Relief of Devastated France, returned here last night from Texas, where she has been campaigning for funds, and then departed for the East. She is planning to return to France next month.

The response of Texas to her appeals for money to help rebuild the war-stricken portions of France were generous, Miss Morgan said. Business men in three out of four cities volunteered to raise $25,000 of the one community for the fund, she said.

U. S. S. MARYLAND, LAUNCHED; IS MOST POWERFUL VESSEL

Secretary Daniels, Governor of Maryland and Other Officials Attend Ceremony at Newport News.

WIFE OF MARYLAND OFFICIAL IS SPONSOR

Superdreadnaught Will Carry Eight 16-Inch Guns—Has 32,950 Tons Displacement, Is 624 Feet Long.

By the Associated Press.
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., March 20.—The superdreadnaught Maryland, designed as the most powerful battleship in the world, was launched today by Mrs. E. Brook Lee, wife of the Comptroller of the State of Maryland, as sponsor.

Secretary Daniels, Gov. Ritchie of Maryland and a number of other naval officials and State officers attended the launching, which was the first public one held here since the United States entered the war.

First of Four to Be Launched.

The Maryland is the first of four ships of her class to be launched and is one of the ten superdreadnaughts authorized in the first three-year building program adopted in 1916. With a length of 624 feet over all, a beam of 97 feet and full load displacement of 32,950 tons, she is the largest fighting craft built for the American navy, and when commissioned will be one of the most powerful battleships in the world.

Originally designed to carry 12 14-inch rifles, the plans for the ship were so changed during the war that she will have instead eight 16-inch guns—the first of this size ever mounted on a ship. They will be placed two in each of four turrets on the center line, two forward and two aft. They will be larger by one inch than the great guns on the British ships of the Queen Elizabeth class, which were used in the bombardment of the Dardanelles.

More Powerful Ships Designed.

Battleships designed since the Maryland was laid down, however, will be even more powerful. They will carry 12 16-inch rifles and will measure 654 feet over all with a displacement of 43,200 tons. They will be 23 knots as against the 21 knots of the Maryland and practically all previous classes of American dreadnaughts.

The Maryland's keel was laid on April 24, 1917, 18 days after the United States declared war on Germany. Work on her was delayed by reason of the rush in getting out destroyers to fight submarines, but it has been resumed since the armistice and the vessel is now nearly three-quarters completed. She will be electrically driven by four propellers, the power for which will be furnished by turbines of approximately 20,000 horsepower. She will be furnished by eight oil-burning boilers.

Following his election he had an attack of influenza which detained him at home for many days. Against Doctor's orders he started to Washington the first of the week, but had a relapse in St. Louis and was confined to a hotel room there for several days.

He still appeared quite sick and weak this morning and, shortly after being sworn in, returned to his rooms to rest. He said he would be able to leave in a few days.

R. E. Lambert of Princeton, Mo., is his private secretary. He is a former service man as well.

THE REV. J. F. CANNON LEFT PERSONAL ESTATE OF $19,763

Holdings Include $5500 Life Insurance, $3975 Liberty Bonds and $5000 in Stock.
An inventory of the estate of the Rev. John F. Cannon, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Union and Delmar boulevards, who died March 10, after being hit by an automobile, was filed in the Probate court today.

Personal property to the amount of $19,763.70 is listed, some of the items being as follows: Notes, $4193.25; life insurance, $5500; stock in the Carleton-Ferguson Dry Goods Co., $5000; bonds, the majority of which are Liberty Bonds, $3975; cash, $429.25; chattels, $655. His library, consisting of 1005 books, valued at $200, also is listed. There was no real estate.

NO CARS CAUSE PAPER SHORTAGE

Publisher Says Empty Cars Not Returned From U. S. to Canada.
By the Associated Press.
MONTREAL, March 20.—Jason Rogers, publisher of the New York Globe, who has come to Montreal to investigate the causes of the serious news print shortage in the United States, said that it was due in large part to the fact that empty freight cars for the movement of the paper were not being returned to Canada from the United States.

"The situation is desperate," said Rogers. "Unless the empty cars are returned the mills must stop making paper as they are getting badly choked and cannot store further supplies."

CHURCHILL JOINS LLOYD GEORGE IN FIGHT ON LABOR

War Minister Declares Socialism Most Formidable and Dark Force Confronting British Civilization.

MODERATE LEADERS RESENT THE ATTACK

They Declare Premier Is Preaching Class War in Giving Reasons for New Political Alignment.

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG.
A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

LONDON, March 20.—Lloyd George's declaration of war against labor, which he sounded Thursday when he addressed the coalition Liberals on the necessity of sticking together with the Tory forces to prevent the nation from coming under the domination of Socialism, is quickly followed by support from his War Minister, Winston Churchill. In the Evening News Churchill, who a few weeks ago, declared labor unity to govern, gave his reasons last evening why he supported his chief, saying: "The Socialist party constitutes the most dark and formidable force with which, now that Germany has been crushed, British civilization is confronted."

To reduce the whole sensational British political situation into everyday language, Premier Lloyd George says in the near future he will go to the country for a mandate for his power, and it is to be as a camouflaged Tory. He believes and so do many others, that if the present coalition is wrecked, another will have to come in its place, and Lloyd George be at its head. But he will take heroic means to accomplish it, so the Premier risks class strife in the hope to alien a majority of his countrymen against the only powerful source of opposition—labor.

Leaders Resent Attack.

His attack on labor as a Socialistic menace and under the influence of extremists comes on the heels of the severest defeat which has been administered to labor by extremists. It was accomplished by constitution labor leaders recently when they overwhelmingly defeated the proposed general strike to force the nationalization of mines. At the same time, the Premier cut the legs from any Tory factions which might have pretension to power.

Keen resentment is felt by moderate labor leaders over the attack by the Premier. They declare the Premier was "preaching class war" in outlining his reasons for the new political alignment.

Arthur Henderson, leader of the Labor party in the House of Commons, has issued a statement supporting "Labor accepts the challenge of Mr. Lloyd George. We are arranging to appeal not only to organized workers, but to every sympathizer. The Labor party aims to raise a fund to enable it to fight the election and purposes to ask for subscriptions totaling 12,000,000 in anticipation of an early election."

The Manchester Guardian, probably Britain's weightiest exponent of independent liberalism, professes a good deal of sympathy with Premier Lloyd George in his political plans. It says that he is by nature and sympathy a Liberal, but has got into the wrong box. The problem is how to get out of it. The Guardian thinks the Premier's denunciation of labor in his address to coalition Liberals are not to be taken as much more than a rhetorical exercise, and considers the Labor party's tendencies on the whole as sane and moderate.

Doctrines Declared Dangerous.
The Daily News, which has long been bitter towards the Premier, considers "if a new party is produced by fusion, it will owe little to Premier Lloyd George." The newspaper adds the Premier "may have a heavy account to reckon with labor for this speech."

The Times considers the speech really meant: "Help me fight labor, which is Socialism," which, the newspaper says, is "a doctrine poor, false and dangerous."

The Telegraph insists that the coalition must be maintained as no party has a clear majority. It also supports the Premier's attitude toward the Labor party, which, it says, has "declared war upon the Liberals exactly as it has upon the Unionists because both are pledged to the defense of institutions which labor is bent of destroying."

WIDOW OF FORMER MAYOR ENDS HER DAYS IN POORHOUSE

Photograph of Husband Buried With Her Scott at Carrollton.

Mrs. Catherine Scott, 82 years old, widow of Thomas Scott, a former Mayor of Carrollton, Ill., died at the Greene County Poorhouse and the funeral was held yesterday from the Trinity Episcopal Church in Carrollton. A large picture of her husband was placed in the casket with the body, and she was buried in a silk dress which she had preserved for many years to be used as her burial robe.

Mrs. Scott was a native of Ireland, but came to this country at the age of 17. Her husband was a pioneer Illinois hardware dealer. Mrs. Scott for many years lived in Carrollton until her home became unfit for habitation and she took to care for herself. About a year ago, she went to the county home where a room was fitted up for her, but she took with her only the picture of her husband and the silk dress in which she was buried.

During 1919 the Post-Dispatch printed 17,408 Horses and Vehicles "Wants"—7444 more than the FOUR other St. Louis Newspapers combined.

FIRE DESTROYS SUPERIOR LAUNDRY, LOSS $150,000

Plant and $75,000 Recently Built Addition at 1745 South 18th St. Wrecked in Midnight Blaze.

Fire which started at 11:30 o'clock last night destroyed the two-story brick plant of the Superior Laundry, operated by the Klag Laundry Co., at 1745 South Eighteenth street, M. R. Orthwein, secretary-treasurer of the company, estimated the loss at about $150,000 to building and contents, all covered by insurance.

The entire plant, which has a frontage of 40 feet and a depth of 150, had been recently refitted and equipped with new machinery. Orthwein said, and $75,000 had been expended in building an addition, which also was destroyed by fire.

Orthwein estimated that wearing apparel and linens valued at about $25,000 had been left in the building to be laundered, and that all but about $5000 worth had been destroyed. The customers will have to stand the loss, he said, as there is no law under which laundries can insure other people's property. Customers had been warned of this fact, he said, by printed notations on laundry slips advising them to have their bundles insured before sending them to the laundry.

Michael Duddy of 4528 Wichita street, a member of Engine Company 16, Broadway and Park avenue, was struck by flying brick and several small bombs in his right foot were fractured. He was taken to the hospital.

The fire spread to a flat at 1749 South Eighth street occupied on the first floor by Max Otto and on the second by Frederick Boppert. Damage to this building was estimated at $500. To Otto's furniture $500 and to Boppert's $150.

William Whitaker, night watchman of the laundry, discovered the fire on the second floor where there were several drying machines heated by gas. He turned in an alarm and after the first firemen arrived two more alarms were sounded.

The cause of the fire has not been determined.

DE VALERA GRATIFIED OVER IRISH TREATY RESERVATION

Declares Senate's Action in Adopting Principle Fulfills His Mission to United States.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 20.—Eamonn de Valera, "President of the Republic of Ireland," announced yesterday that the adoption by the United States of a reservation to the peace treaty approving the principle of self-determination for the Irish people had fulfilled his mission in this country.

The announcement was made in a cablegram to Arthur Griffith, "Acting President of the Republic of Ireland," Mansion House, Dublin, which read:

"A to deem should be sung throughout all Ireland. We thank Almighty God, we thank the noble American nation, we thank the friends of Ireland here who have worked so unselfishly for our cause, we thank the heroic dead whose sacrifices made victory possible. "Our mission has been successful. The principle of self-determination has been formally adopted in an international instrument. Ireland has been given her place among the nations by the greatest nation of them all."

12,000 POLISH TROOPS TO RETURN TO THE U. S.

First Contingent Will Sail From Danzig on An American Transport—March 22.

By the Associated Press.
WARSAW, March 20.—A large number of troops formerly belonging to the command of the Polish General, Haller, will sail for the United States March 22 aboard the American transport Ancon, commanded by the American legation and the Polish authorities. The Poles are to transport the former troops to the seaport and the United States will furnish the transportation to New York.

A second contingent of Poles will sail March 31 on board the Pocha-hontas and 2500 April 11 on board the Mercury.

All the demobilized men come from Illinois, Wisconsin, Western Pennsylvania and nearby states. In all about 12,000 men of Polish origin are to return to the United States.

"$75,000 ACCOUNT," 61 CENTS

Motor Sales Company Head Disappears Leaving Many Victims.
SOLDO, O., March 20.—Police continuing the search for Frank B. Lawrence, head of the Central Motor Sales Co., who is alleged to have absconded leaving a long trail of victims in a $75,000 swindle, claimed today to have discovered that in a bank where Lawrence said he had an account of $75,000 only 61 cents remained on the books in his favor.

A criminal warrant for Lawrence's arrest was sworn out yesterday. Lawrence, who came here from Chicago several months ago, and established an office for the sale and purchase of used cars, transacted business with many promissory notes which have been found worthless, the authorities say. Police of Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana cities have been enlisted in the search for Lawrence.

GIRLS DECORATED FOR GIVING SECRET OF GERMAN GAS MASK

Belgians Got News Across Frontier—Father Posed as Pro-German to Aid Allies.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, March 20.—Awards have just been made to two Belgian women, Mme. Clement and her sister, Mlle. Marie d'Harn, and posthumously to their father, Theophile d'Harn, for giving to the Belgian General Staff details of the first German gas mask.

Posing as a pro-German, M. d'Harn was able to send one of his daughters to Havre, then the Belgian great headquarters, with a design of the mask concealed in her dress. She went by way of Holland and at the Dutch frontier she was searched for four hours in vain. "The documents bearing on the case have been lost. Altogether Mlle. d'Harn crossed the frontier 50 times until, at the end of 1915, she thought it would be safer to remain in Holland."

So well did the father pose as a pro-German that his neighbors hated him, and his behavior to him hastened his death from heart disease. At the time of the armistice a crowd tried to burn down his house.

90,000 ILLINOIS MINERS TO SUPPORT KANSAS STRIKE

Alexander Howat Announces Program for Several Walkouts in Defiance of Anti-Strike Law.

By the Associated Press.
PEORIA, Ill., March 20.—The 90,000 miners, through representatives in session here today, gave unqualified support of State President Alexander Howat of Kansas today, when he announced a program for the launching of a general miners' strike in Kansas in defiance of State laws there, which are said to now prohibit strikes of any nature.

Howat was one of the leaders of the coal miners recently cited for contempt by Federal Judge Anderson at Indianapolis.

The fight in the convention over the question of calling a strike in the Belknap district unless men alleged to have been discriminated against in the strike of last August are reinstated continued this morning.

Delegates grew bitter in their speeches and charges of attempting to wreck the organization were hurled back and forth.

QUEEN AIDS DYING WORKER

By the Associated Press.
MADRID, March 20.—While Queen Victoria was driving through the city yesterday she met a priest who was going on foot to give the last sacrament to a dying working man. When she learned of the mission of the priest, her majesty alighted and insisted that he use her carriage.

The priest agreed and the Queen followed on foot to the home of the dying man where she remained during the ceremony.

AMERICAN LINE

New York—Plymouth—Cherbourg—Southampton

ONE CLASS CABIN SERVICE

Moderate Rates

Steamers Newly Refitted, Professional String Orchestras, Accommodations Include Numerous Rooms

Fast United States Mail Steamers

"PHILADELPHIA" Apr. 10 May 8 June 5
"NEW YORK" Mar. 27 Apr. 24 May 22 June 19
"ST. PAUL" Apr. 3 May 1 May 29 June 26

International Mercantile Marine Co.
OFFICES: N. W. Cor. 11th & Locust Sts.
Both Phones

CUNARD-ANCHOR

Anchor-Donaldson

Passenger and Freight Services

Mauritania New York to Cherbourg and Southampton Mar. 23
Italia New York to Genoa Mar. 31
Saturnia Portland to Glasgow Apr. 9
Pannonia New York to Patras, Dubrovnik and Trieste Apr. 10
Saxonia New York to Plymouth, Hamburg and London Apr. 10
Carmania New York to Plymouth, Cherbourg and Liverpool Apr. 10
Royal George New York to Plymouth, Cherbourg & Southampton Apr. 14
Mauretania New York to Cherbourg and Southampton Apr. 24
Columbia New York to Londonderry and Glasgow Apr. 17
K. A. Victoria New York to Liverpool Apr. 24
Imperator New York to Cherbourg and Southampton May 8
Mauretania New York to Liverpool May 22
Carmania New York to Liverpool May 28
Saxonia New York to Plymouth, Havre and London May 13
Royal George New York to Plymouth, Cherbourg & Southampton May 19
Caronia New York to Plymouth, Cherbourg and Liverpool May 29

For later sailings apply to 1135 Olive St., Post-Dispatch Bldg., St. Louis

ENGLAND AND BELGIUM

*THE RED STAR LINE
Steamers "LAPLAND" and "ZEELAND" and the American Flag Steamers "ONLAND" and "FINLAND"—the latter three equipped for Oil-Fuel—sail regularly between New York, Southampton and Antwerp.

*COMFORT, SERVICE and unexcelled cuisine are to be found aboard these splendid vessels.

INTERNATIONAL MERCANTILE MARINE COMPANY
RED STAR LINE
OFFICES: N. W. Cor. 11th & Locust Sts.
Both Phones

LIBERAL SPEAKERS DISCUSS NEED OF ANOTHER PARTY

Republicans and Democrats Assailed at "Forty-Eighters" Meeting at the Odeon
as in Bankruptcy.

PLEA FOR A FREE PRESS, FREE SPEECH

William Marion Reedy As-sails Administration, Says Postoffice Department Has Become "Post-Mortem."

An audience which occupied two-thirds of the seating capacity of the Odeon last night heard speakers representing various "liberal" elements in politics, gathered in a mass meeting called by the Committee of Forty-Eight. There were representatives of the American Labor party, the National People's League, the Colored Voters' Society, labor unions, and the Committee of Forty-Eight on the program, while a national organizer of the Non-Partisan League sat on the platform.

It was an enthusiastic audience, estimated at perhaps 1200 persons, and speakers were many times interrupted with applause, which continued several seconds. William Marion Reedy presided and when Sheridan Carlisle praised his work in behalf of the liberal movement, the audience applauded loudly. Someone in the rear of the hall called, "Nominate Reedy for United States Senator."

Many Women in Audience.
These were many women in the audience and they were scheduled to have a representative, Mrs. Eugene Seneseny, on the program, but it was announced that she was ill and unable to appear. There were also several negroes in the audience and their representative, Robert N. Owens, an attorney, was well received during his brief address.

In opening the meeting, Chairman Reedy said that it had been called as the first of a series of such meetings calculated to weld together the liberal elements of all parties into a third and stronger political organization. He asserted the Democratic and Republican parties were "moral and political bankrupts." He ridiculed the Postoffice Department, campaign pledges and party platforms.

"The pet of the administration, Mr. Burleson," said he, "has turned the postoffice into postmortem; he has substituted for 'dictated but not read,' the slogan, 'mailed but not delivered.'"

"The cry of the politicians is 'Do not abuse the voters.' In Russia a Bolshevik is a man who insists that he who will not work shall not eat. In America a Bolshevik is any man who dares disagree with the schoolmaster and who dares assert the right of free speech and a free press."

Assails Administration.
"The administration at Washington is standing for rank sedition laws and is firing Cabinet members because their minds do not run in the same groove with that of their master. Pretty soon the American people will all be fired if that is to be the basis for discharge. About six years ago we went into a hellbroth of war in Europe to make the world safe for democracy. Now it looks like we had lost our own. We came out of that war with our personal liberties threatened and with free speech shut off by an administration masquerading under the name of a democracy. If this is democracy, for which the world is to be made safe, God save the world."

Reedy said that the treaty of peace would be thrown into the campaign as the paramount issue in order to deceive the people into thinking there were no other issues. Concluding, he said, "If a man of the old parties is to be elected President again, we might as well nominate Mutt and Jeff on one ticket and the Halloran Boys on the other."

Duncan McDonald of Springfield, Ill., head of the American Labor party, declared that "during the war the Government took over the railroads, but now the railroads have again taken over the Government."

Labor organizations, he said, had broken the precedent of years and had decided to enter politics, and we hope to demonstrate our force when the votes are counted next November.

465,000 Children Underfed.
McDonald urged that the situation for workmen be regarded as serious, saying, "It is very serious. The high cost of living has become so serious that many of us wonder whether it is worth while trying to live. The Congressional Record is my authority for the statement that there were created in the United States during the war 30,000 new millionaires. Every time you create a millionaire you also create hundreds of paupers. There are 465,000 school children in America who go to school without having breakfast, who are so undernourished they cannot study. And yet they call one a Bolshevik if he dare come on these things."

"The workingman gets the work, the other fellow gets the worry. In the great political conventions four years ago there was just one labor union man in each party. So they had no advantage over one another. They said they would go out and get the labor vote and I guess they did. What difference does it make to you or me whether a Republican or Democrat wins? There is no difference in the old parties. Of course, the only hope for the Democrats to win this time is to persuade the Republicans to nominate William J. Bryan. But I believe we can bring together the liberal elements and win this next election for the people."

He said the American Labor party was well organized in the majority of states east of the Mississippi and was extending its activities daily. Paul Harris Drake of Boston, in charge of the local headquarters of the Committee of 48, asserted the old parties had forfeited public confidence and that an end should be put to their power in American politics.

Need of Free Speech.
Sheridan Carlisle, Missouri head of the National People's League, said that the greatest need of the United States now was the restoration of free speech and a free press, unhindered by sedition laws.

Robert N. Owens, a negro attorney, said that the negroes of Missouri would be glad to co-operate with the liberal party if assured that their votes would not be lost. "The only difference between the treatment of negroes by the two old parties," said he, "is that a Democrat points his gun at us and says, 'You cannot vote,' while the Republican points his gun at us and says, 'Vote, but damn you, vote my way.'"

M. Clinton Harrison of Chicago, Midwest director of the Committee of Forty-eight, closed the program with a short talk on the objects of the committee and an outline of some of its plans for uniting the liberal bodies in one great party.

A musical program was given by a band from the Musicians' Union.

NAVAL PRISON COMMANDANT
SERVES VOLUNTARY SENTENCE

Thomas Mott Osborne Checks in as "Tom Brown" to Test His Welfare System.

By the Associated Press.
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., March 20.—Lieutenant Commander Thomas Mott Osborne, who has resigned as commandant of the naval prison here, will spend his last days at Portsmouth as a voluntary prisoner. He registered as "Tom Brown," and announced that he would remain in confinement until he relinquishes his post as commandant of the prison. He also submitted to the prison hair cut.

Before he assumed command of the prison, three years ago, he served a voluntary sentence, cutting his hair and coaling ships with prisoners. He also submitted to the prison hair cut.

KENTUCKY TAKES DAVIS SHAFT

State Will Maintain $300,000 Statue and Park at Fairview.

By the Associated Press.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 20.—Custody and maintenance of the Jefferson Davis Memorial at Fairview, Ky., now practically in the hands of the State. Gov. Edwin P. Morrow had signed the bill passed by the last Legislature creating a permanent commission to take over the project largely from Gen. George W. Littlefield of Austin, Texas, the largest individual contributor.

The memorial occupies a site in a park of 19 acres and is intended to mark the place where the President of the Confederate States was born. It will be 215 feet in height and will have cost more than $300,000. Gen. W. B. Haldeman, Louisville, President of the Memorial Association which collected funds for building the monument, attributes success of the project largely to Gen. George W. Littlefield of Austin, Texas, the largest individual contributor.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

ARRESTS OF INDICTED COAL OPERATORS BEGUN

Five of 125 Charged With Conspiracy to Enhance Prices Released on $10,000 Bonds.

By the Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 20.—Arrest of the first of 125 coal operators or miners indicted by a special Federal grand jury here for alleged violation of the Lever fuel control act and conspiracy sections of the Federal criminal code, was effected yesterday when Carl J. Fletcher of Indianapolis, secretary of the Knox County (Ind.) Coal Operators Association, surrendered to the United States Marshal here.

Fletcher was released immediately when he furnished bond of $10,000 for his appearance in court May 4. Four more operators surrendered today. The men are Edwin D. Logan, B. E. Neal and W. H. Tobin, of Indianapolis, and William Zeller of Brazil. They were released on $10,000 bond each.

It became known last night that all Indiana operators under indictment are aware of the fact, although the names have not been given out for publication by Federal officials. The Indiana operators held a meeting in Terre Haute Wednesday night, it was stated, at which a list of names of the mine operators facing charges was read. This list is said to have been authorized by a Federal official, although the specific charges against the men were withheld. This list, it was said, did not contain the names of the miners indicted.

According to operators the list furnished them would indicate that most of the operators indicted were men present at the wage scale conference in the central competitive field—Indiana, Ohio, Illinois and Western Pennsylvania—since the passage of the Lever act. Operators also ventured the opinion that the charges against them include publication of coal quotations as means of regulating coal prices, and use of the "check off" system in the mines, whereby dues of members of the miners' union are withheld from their pay and turned over to the union locals. The "check off" system was mentioned specifically in the instructions to the special grand jury by United States District Judge A. B. Anderson, when the jury was called following the strike of bituminous coal miners to investigate the coal industry.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, imitations and "just-as-good" are but experiments, and endanger the health of children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA
Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher
In Use For Over 30 Years
THE CANTON COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, imitations and "just-as-good" are but experiments, and endanger the health of children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA
Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher
In Use For Over 30 Years
THE CANTON COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prerogatives appertaining to her former position. She did this in order that she might become a citizen of the Austrian Republic.

Archduchess Renounces Rights.

By the Associated Press.
VIENNA, March 20.—Former Archduchess Marie Valerie, granddaughter of the late Emperor Francis Joseph, has renounced her membership in the House of Hapsburg and has given up all prer

LIVE WIDENING BILL PUT OVER TO NEXT FRIDAY

F.H. Gerhart Appears Before Aldermen as the Spokesman of Opponents of Plan.

TWO LICENSE BILLS ARE INTRODUCED

One Would Tax Check Room Receipts; the Other Calls for Fee to Operate Beverage Saloons.

Final action on the bill pending in the Board of Aldermen providing for the widening of Olive street from a 40-foot to a 100-foot thoroughfare between Twelfth street and Channing avenue, at an estimated cost of $2,000,000, was deferred until next Friday at a meeting of the Board yesterday afternoon, following a public hearing at which a number of property owners appeared, both to endorse and oppose the measure.

Opponents of the bill, headed by Frank H. Gerhart, a real estate dealer, declared that the plan of taking 40 feet off property on the south side of the street would leave a shallow lot of 69 feet unsuited to business purposes. Gerhart proposed that a new ordinance be drafted, condemning the entire depth of lots on the south side and utilizing the additional space for the construction of a 184-foot boulevard with an esplanade in the center.

Objections are answered. Harold Bartholomew, engineer for the City Plan Commission, said that investigation by that body had convinced the members that the plan provided in the pending bill is the only feasible plan for widening Olive street at reasonable cost. He declared that within the last few years Brooklyn, N. Y., had occasion to widen a business street to such an extent that lots only 69 feet in depth remained. These proved valuable for business purposes.

Gerhart's plan, according to Bartholomew, could not be carried out for less than $5,000,000. The present ordinance contemplates the expenditure of $841,000 damages for buildings on the south side of the street and $750,000 for damage to the land. The property affected by the ordinance is assessed at $3,236,000.

An ordinance providing for the regulation of motorbus traffic and requiring operating companies to pay an annual license of $25 for each bus in addition to an operating tax of three per cent of the gross revenue, failed of passage at yesterday's meeting, owing to the inability of those in favor of it to get the required majority.

Under the board rules a bill cannot be passed unless at least 15 of the 29 members of the board vote for it. The vote yesterday was 14 for and 12 against.

Before the vote was taken Alderman Schell of the Second Ward made an unsuccessful attempt to have the bill referred back to committee, stating that the Missouri Motor Bus Co., the only concern to be affected by the bill, is not operating at a profit, and should be allowed the time necessary to establish itself as a transportation facility.

License Bills Introduced. The licensing of hotel and restaurant check rooms at the rate of $15 a year and a tax of five per cent on all receipts is provided in a measure introduced by Alderman Wolf, who said that in his opinion such an ordinance would yield the city from $15,000 to $20,000 annually. He declared he has been informed that in several instances check room operators pay from $2000 to $5000 for the privilege of maintaining their places.

A bill providing an annual license of $100 for all persons or firms selling beverages containing any percentage of alcohol was introduced by Alderman Stockhausen.

Salary Increases Approved. The Board of Estimate and Apportionment yesterday voted to approve an ordinance increasing the salaries of Rodow Abeken, Director of Playgrounds, from $2400 to $1800 a year, and Miss Sarah Wolf, Superintendent of Community Centers, from $1500 to $2400. Comptroller Nolte voted against the approval of the ordinance on the ground that the board had recommended 10-per-cent increases for other city employees and would not be consistent if it granted larger increases to Abeken and Miss Wolf.

A committee of persons interested in Park Department activities, headed by Dwight F. Davis, appeared before the board and urged the approval of the ordinance. It was at first proposed to increase Abeken's salary to $4000 a year and that of Miss Wolf to $2800, but this was changed by the board.

FOR UNINSTRUCTED DELEGATES By the Associated Press. CINCINNATI, March 20.—Vice President Marshall believes uninstructed delegates should be sent to the Democratic National Convention, according to a letter received here by friends who desired to enter his name in the Georgia preferential primaries from Mark Thistlethwaite, his private secretary.

SENATE MAJORITY SHOULD BE EMPOWERED TO RATIFY TREATY, BRYAN BELIEVES

Nebraskan in New York Address Asserts Role in Congress in Declaring Peace Should Be Same as in Declaring War.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 20.—William Jennings Bryan declared here last night that his ambition was not to enjoy the honors of public office but to discharge as fully as possible his debt of gratitude to the American people.

This was the Nebraskan's first pronouncement on the Democratic presidential nomination since the announcement of his brother in Lincoln, on March 9, that the "Commoner" would not vote for United States Senator G. M. Hitchcock if he were elected a delegate to the national convention.

Bryan made known his stand in a speech at a dinner at the Aldine Club arranged in celebration of his sixtieth birthday anniversary by friends and admirers of all parties. This address was the first on a speaking tour that will embrace many states.

After submitting "some conclusions drawn from 30 years of experiences in the arena of politics," Bryan said:

"Even in my youth I had no doubt of the final triumph of every righteous cause and my faith is even greater now since I have seen reform after reform accomplished and great principles that were at first scoffed at, written into the unrepentable law of the land.

Political Labor Rewarded. "No one has been happier than I in the character and constancy of his efforts for the political vineyard. My ambition is not to discharge the honors of office, but to discharge as fully as I can the debt of gratitude I owe to the American people.

"I am aware that my place in history will not depend upon what others do for me, but upon what I am able to do for my country, if a kind providence adds years to my life they will be spent in an earnest effort to aid in putting the American people in complete control of their Government and to promote peace among all the nations, to the end that the conscience of our country and the world may more surely and more speedily overthrow injustice and establish among men the nearest approach to the divine measure of rewards."

Beware of the dam, was the subject of the Nebraskan's address. Comparing civilization to a mighty river which will not be denied, he listed obstructions which have been swept away in his lifetime and those which he declared "must go."

In the latter class he placed the profiteer, privately monopolized, the wage earners' progress and the farmer's advance and the rules of the United States Senate, which he declared should be changed so as to allow a majority close debate and compact a vote.

He suggested three remedies that surpass all others in effectiveness: "freedom of speech, supplying of citizens with 'incorruptible channels of information,' 'a Government bulletin,' not a newspaper, and faith in the intelligence and capacity of the people. He refused to 'admit the possibility of revolution in the United States.'

Believes in People. "I believe in optimism—not in an optimism that is blind to dangers and ignores evils that need correction, but an optimism built upon confidence in the virtue and intelligence of our people. I do not admit the possibility of revolution in the United States."

Ballots in the hands of all are cheaper and more effective than bullets, and the people will use them to reform all abuses before they reach a point where the thought of revolutionary remedies will be tolerated."

Bryan referred to the action taken by the recent Democratic State convention at Albany against prohibition.

"There will be no wet plank in the platform either at Chicago or San Francisco," he declared, with the prediction that he will live to see the time when not a saloon in the world will be open.

"The Democratic party has been redeemed as every Democratic state in the Union has ratified the amendment," he declared.

Legion Privates to Meet. By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 20.—A national convention of the private soldiers and sailors league to be held July 15 at executive committee of the league's Executive Committee.

Choice of the convention city has been left to a referendum vote of the local legions.

ARRESTED FOR STRIKING WIFE Otto Krone, a mail clerk employed in the main postoffice at Eighteenth street and Clark avenue, was arrested last night on complaint of his wife, Mrs. Ruth Krone, of 4106 Walsh street, the mother of five children, who told the police he had struck her in the face and knocked her against a bed in their home, inflicting her back.

She told the police she had been deserted some time ago and at that time she had complained to postoffice officials, who had arranged for the payment of $29 every two weeks to her from Krone's salary. Last night, she said, he came to her home and demanded that she withdraw the complaint at the postoffice and allow him to draw his full salary. This she refused, she said, whereupon he struck her.

Alleged Thief Taken in Fight. PARIS, March 20.—Navarro Dominguez, a native of Montevideo, has been arrested here at the request of police authorities of New York City on the charge of stealing jewelry valued at $20,000 there. Dominguez took shelter in a wine cellar and exchanged shots with the detectives. He was finally overpowered and taken to Lasante Prison.

LANE COMMUNITY CONFERENCE MEETS IN WASHINGTON

Message From Former Secretary Points Out Need of Confronting U. S. of More Interested Citizenship.

SAYS GROUP LINES SHOULD BE ABOLISHED

Views of Churches, Farmers and Business on Movement and Women's Part in Work Discussed.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 20.—Development of a more thoughtful and interested citizenship and the translation of crystallized public sentiment into action are the two needs of grave import confronting the nation at this time, Franklin K. Lane, former Secretary of the Interior, declared in a paper read today at the opening session of the National Conference on Community Organization.

Lane said his interest in community organization arose from his conviction that it would help to solve both of these problems.

"The movement has many phases," he said. "It lies, for instance, at the very root of a proper Americanization, for the essence of Americanization is not merely to teach English, but to draw the newcomer into our common life and to make him an active partner in all of our undertakings."

Tends to Break Group Lines. "But above all else, the community organization movement tends to break down group lines and to bring the people together as citizens and neighbors for consideration and action regarding the needs. A more interested citizenship and more intelligent decisions regarding public questions must reflect themselves in better government."

"We need as a people to emphasize the common interests which bind us together. There are divisions in our national life: Let us recognize them all—economic, social, political, racial, whatever they may be—let us examine them, weigh them, and find solutions for them. Let us also remember that after all we are human beings embarked all together on a great adventure—the most inspiring, the most spiritual adventure man ever dared—the search for a democracy based on fellowship and justice."

Lane Unable to Attend. The conference was called by Lane as one of his last official acts before retiring as Secretary of the Interior. Lane, who had expected to preside as chairman, was unable to attend from California in time to deliver the address he had planned.

Frederick C. Butler, former Director of Americanization of the Interior Department, presided.

Speakers at the morning session included Orrin C. Lester of the Treasury Department; Wilbur C. Phillips of the National Social Unit Organization; and E. G. Lindman, Greensboro, N. C. At a luncheon following the morning session, Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, presiding women's part in the community movement was on the program for discussion.

The afternoon session was devoted entirely to a discussion of what special groups can do to promote "neighborhoods day," and the community movement. Among the speakers were Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, Gov. Cornwall of West Virginia and others giving the views of the churches, business, farmers and various other organizations.

A resolution introduced at the morning session proposed the formation of a national body which would include in its membership representatives from each State and from all important national groups. It also provided for the appointment of a temporary executive committee to formulate a flexible plan for the observance of Flag day June 14 as an occasion for the promotion of neighborliness and the discussion of democratic community organization throughout the country. The committee would report back at a conference to be called later.

WOMAN AIDS POLICE IN CAPTURE OF TWO BURGLARS Telephone Station When She Sees Home of Neighbors, Who Were Out of City Broken Into.

Two burglars were caught ransacking the home of Joseph Roundtree, 2050 Lafayette avenue, at 8:29 o'clock last night. The Roundtrees are out of the city. The burglars were seen forcing a back door by a woman living across the alley from the Roundtree home. She telephoned the Soudard street police station.

Capt. Mansfield and several patrolmen went to the house and surrounded it. Mansfield went in by the back door, which had been left ajar by the burglars, and found two men in a middle room. They were unarmed and surrendered.

The appearance of the house indicated that several rooms had been ransacked. Dresser drawers were opened and contents scattered about. The prisoners said they were Hugh Callahan, 21 years old, and Foster Kramer, 21. They refused to say where they lived.

SOLDIER IS SHOT BY NEGRO IN HOLD UP Wrestles With Man Who Sold Him Whisky and Who Escapes Without Money.

Julius Allen, 25 years old, of Albergo, Minn., a soldier, was found at Twenty-first and Market streets at 11:30 o'clock last night, suffering from bullet wounds in the right arm and left hand. He had $98 and a half pint of whisky in his pockets.

He told the police that he was on his way home on a furlough from Fort Sam Houston, Tex., and that while waiting for a train at Union Station he was approached by a negro who offered to purchase some liquor for him. He accompanied the negro to a point on Eighteenth street, just north of Market street, he said, and the negro went into a store, returning a few minutes later with a flask of whisky for which Allen paid $5.

The negro then volunteered to show Allen where he could get all he wanted to drink and took him to Twenty-first street. At the mouth of an alley on Twenty-first, between Pine and Chestnut streets, the negro drew a revolver and ordered Allen to throw up his hands.

Allen said that he tried to take the revolver from the negro and in the scuffle was shot twice. The negro escaped.

Johnson Delegates Winners. FARGO, N. D., March 20.—Gunder Olson of Grafton, N. D., Republican National Committee member, who was re-elected in Tuesday's primary election, has increased his lead over Ole H. Olson of New Rockford, non-partisan league candidate. The regular ticket of Republican delegate candidates, with Miss Minnie J. Nelson, heading the list, will go to the Chicago convention instructed to vote for Senator Hiram Johnson of California.

FRISCO ROAD TO SPEND $1,000,000 IN IMPROVEMENTS. The Frisco Railroad plans to spend, within the next few months, more than $1,000,000 in improving its lines within a 200-mile radius of St. Louis.

This work is to begin with the double-tracking of the system between Pacific and Eureka, Mo., a distance of seven miles, costing $435,000, and also between Lebanon and Sleeper, Mo., nearly eight miles, costing $225,000. It is expected the work will begin within 30 days.

The laying of a double track over this portion of the line is only preliminary to similar work to be done later on other parts of the system, but it is unlikely that any great amount of this will be done this year. The improvements contemplated for this summer, however, are expected to greatly expedite traffic to and from St. Louis over the Frisco lines. A suggestion that the line between Windsor Springs, 13 1/2 miles from St. Louis, to Valley Park, a distance of five miles, be double-tracked, was offered, but has not been acted upon.

NEW WAY of Heating Cellarless Houses

Complete outfit of Hot Water Heat $13!

The outfit consists of an IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler and 4, 5, or 6 AMERICAN Radiators and Special Expansion Tank—everything except labor, pipe and fittings, which any local dealer will supply. See prices below for various sizes of outfits.

Size of Radiator-Boiler	Size of Radiators	Price
1-1/2" x 3-1/2" x 10"	4	$131
2" x 4" x 10"	4	163
2" x 4" x 10"	5	180
2" x 4" x 10"	6	200
2" x 4" x 10"	7	234
2" x 4" x 10"	8	270
2" x 4" x 10"	9	306
2" x 4" x 10"	10	342
2" x 4" x 10"	11	378
2" x 4" x 10"	12	414
2" x 4" x 10"	13	450
2" x 4" x 10"	14	486
2" x 4" x 10"	15	522
2" x 4" x 10"	16	558
2" x 4" x 10"	17	594
2" x 4" x 10"	18	630
2" x 4" x 10"	19	666
2" x 4" x 10"	20	702
2" x 4" x 10"	21	738
2" x 4" x 10"	22	774
2" x 4" x 10"	23	810
2" x 4" x 10"	24	846
2" x 4" x 10"	25	882
2" x 4" x 10"	26	918
2" x 4" x 10"	27	954
2" x 4" x 10"	28	990
2" x 4" x 10"	29	1026
2" x 4" x 10"	30	1062
2" x 4" x 10"	31	1098
2" x 4" x 10"	32	1134
2" x 4" x 10"	33	1170
2" x 4" x 10"	34	1206
2" x 4" x 10"	35	1242
2" x 4" x 10"	36	1278
2" x 4" x 10"	37	1314
2" x 4" x 10"	38	1350
2" x 4" x 10"	39	1386
2" x 4" x 10"	40	1422
2" x 4" x 10"	41	1458
2" x 4" x 10"	42	1494
2" x 4" x 10"	43	1530
2" x 4" x 10"	44	1566
2" x 4" x 10"	45	1602
2" x 4" x 10"	46	1638
2" x 4" x 10"	47	1674
2" x 4" x 10"	48	1710
2" x 4" x 10"	49	1746
2" x 4" x 10"	50	1782
2" x 4" x 10"	51	1818
2" x 4" x 10"	52	1854
2" x 4" x 10"	53	1890
2" x 4" x 10"	54	1926
2" x 4" x 10"	55	1962
2" x 4" x 10"	56	1998
2" x 4" x 10"	57	2034
2" x 4" x 10"	58	2070
2" x 4" x 10"	59	2106
2" x 4" x 10"	60	2142
2" x 4" x 10"	61	2178
2" x 4" x 10"	62	2214
2" x 4" x 10"	63	2250
2" x 4" x 10"	64	2286
2" x 4" x 10"	65	2322
2" x 4" x 10"	66	2358
2" x 4" x 10"	67	2394
2" x 4" x 10"	68	2430
2" x 4" x 10"	69	2466
2" x 4" x 10"	70	2502
2" x 4" x 10"	71	2538
2" x 4" x 10"	72	2574
2" x 4" x 10"	73	2610
2" x 4" x 10"	74	2646
2" x 4" x 10"	75	2682
2" x 4" x 10"	76	2718
2" x 4" x 10"	77	2754
2" x 4" x 10"	78	2790
2" x 4" x 10"	79	2826
2" x 4" x 10"	80	2862
2" x 4" x 10"	81	2898
2" x 4" x 10"	82	2934
2" x 4" x 10"	83	2970
2" x 4" x 10"	84	3006
2" x 4" x 10"	85	3042
2" x 4" x 10"	86	3078
2" x 4" x 10"	87	3114
2" x 4" x 10"	88	3150
2" x 4" x 10"	89	3186
2" x 4" x 10"	90	3222
2" x 4" x 10"	91	3258
2" x 4" x 10"	92	3294
2" x 4" x 10"	93	3330
2" x 4" x 10"	94	3366
2" x 4" x 10"	95	3402
2" x 4" x 10"	96	3438
2" x 4" x 10"	97	3474
2" x 4" x 10"	98	3510
2" x 4" x 10"	99	3546
2" x 4" x 10"	100	3582

NEW WAY of Heating Cellarless Houses

Complete outfit of Hot Water Heat $13!

HERE is a necessity of life offered to you at pre-war price. The IDEAL-Arcola heating outfit will never wear out. It will outlast the building itself. There is no other contrivance which will heat your home with as much economy in the use of fuel. Nothing else is as safe or as easy to run. It is the solution of the small-house-heating problem.

Uniform Warmth—Healthful—Coal Economizing!

Why pay the cost of doing without? Every day or week that you contrive to get along with old, faulty, wasteful heating methods you are actually paying the cost of doing without. Figure it this way, the IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler outfit becomes a permanent and valuable addition to your home. It is property that will never decrease in value. Every IDEAL heating plant in the world today is worth more than the owner paid for it. No matter how long it has been in service. Think that over!

New IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler

Write us at once, today, for the intensely interesting booklet giving full information, showing views of cut-away cottages, bungalows, small stores, houses and flats, which give you a vivid and correct idea of the installation of the IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler outfit in any building.

The price is a real bargain and to help you further we offer you arrangements wherein you can buy on easy payments if you don't want to pay all at once. Ask us for particulars, no obligation whatever.

Sold by all dealers
No exclusive agents

AMERICAN RADIATOR COMPANY

Public showrooms at Chicago, New York, Boston, Springfield, Providence, Worcester, Philadelphia, Newark, Wilkes-Barre, Reading, Harrisburg, Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Norfolk, Albany, Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth, St. Louis, Kansas City, Des Moines, Omaha, Denver, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle, Spokane, Portland, Toronto.

Phone or write us at 410 North Broadway St. Louis, Mo.

Bunte COUGH DROPS

Don't Cough

The last thing at night—a Bunte Cough Drop. They soothe, and cool, and insure a night of uninterrupted sleep.

LOOK FOR THE FUNNY EAT MAN ON THE RED BOX

BUNTE BROTHERS (Inc. 1916) CHICAGO

A Wonderful Stomach Medicine is AR-LON for

REG. U. S. PATENT OFFICE

Gastritis, Indigestion, Piles, Gallstones, 35c, $1.00

Druggists. Get it from Wholesalers.

ECZEMA

Money back without question if HUNT'S Salve fails in the treatment of ECZEMA, RINGWORM, TETTER, or other itching skin disease. Try a 75 cent box at our risk.

JUDGE & DOLPH DRUG STORES: 515 Olive, 7th and Locust, 514 Washington, St. Louis, Mo.

WOMEN! MOTHERS! DAUGHTERS!

Bind Resinol

Little cuts and scratches are aggravating and painful, and they can even become dangerous if infected. Prevent such a condition by cleansing the injured spot well, and then applying RESINOL OINTMENT. Its gentle antiseptic balsams soothe while they heal. A physician's prescription, and recommended widely, it is no longer an experiment to thousands who have used it successfully for various skin affections. At all druggists.

FOR UNINSTRUCTED DELEGATES

By the Associated Press. CINCINNATI, March 20.—Vice President Marshall believes uninstructed delegates should be sent to the Democratic National Convention, according to a letter received here by friends who desired to enter his name in the Georgia preferential primaries from Mark Thistlethwaite, his private secretary.

MAX ROSEN, VIOLINIST SHOWS RARE VIRTUOSITY

Symphony Orchestra's Regular Season Will Close With Tonight's Concert.

By W. H. JAMES.

MAX ROSEN, one of the best of the young American violinists, was the soloist at the last of the matinee concerts of the regular Symphony Orchestra season at the Odeon yesterday, playing in masterful and forceful style Saint-Saens' No. 3 concerto in B-minor. This is essentially a "show piece," with every encouragement for the display of virtuosity, but occasionally beautified by singing melodies of rare sweetness which gave the performer an opportunity to show his powers of expression. Rosen displayed rare quality in the more difficult passages of the first and third movements and wonderful facility in the lighter passages of the second movement. Judged by all standards which may properly be applied to youthful violinists, it was a performance of the solo violin offerings. For an encore he played Sarasate's "Caprice Basque," with piano accompaniment.

The first-time local offering of the American symphony orchestra, "Adventures of a Samurai," was attended by inauspicious circumstances. Throughout the first and part of the second movement Director Zach and his musicians had to compete with the untimely and ill-timed bumping of the steam radiators. Noisy late comers delayed the starting of the second movement, and when it was finally launched someone committed cultural sabotage by dropping an umbrella or came into the works. The ambitious effort of Mr. Whitehouse probably will have fuller justice done to it tonight, when the program will be repeated.

Genuine Japanese Melodies.
In "The Adventures of a Samurai" the composer has taken advantage of his own studies and the researches of friends to gather a remarkable collection of genuine Japanese melodies, which he has woven together most effectively to make a concert piece of rare interest and real novelty in its arrangement. His use of the bells, cello, harp, brasses, cymbals, music strings and wood winds in odd and varied combinations is daring, but fully justified by the results.

The last of the four movements is an attempt at musical interpretation of that quality known as "Bushido." Occasionally expressed in the line "Whatever fate befalls me, I go where duty calls me," the composer has used such subjects as "The Blue Lizard," an explanation of the scientific fact that the blue lizard is found only in the region of the San Jacinto Mountains at an altitude exceeding 1500 feet above sea level.

AN UNUSUAL WAR STORY.
"THE SECRET BATTLE," by A. P. Herbert, though having ground, presents an unusual plot that gives it interest notwithstanding. It is the simple narrative of an ordinary man, recording faithfully the daily events in the life of an average British soldier during the early part of the war, showing how each incident reacted on one certain soldier, Harry, and eventually resulted in the total disintegration of his morale and caused his execution for cowardice.

The subject is not a pleasant one and many readers will not like it because of its clear sketching of things which many would fain forget, but the book is not one that can be tossed aside as a mere collection of war stories. It is gripping and moving even if it is not pleasant to think about. (Alfred A. Knopf.)

GOOD GOVERNMENT TICKET NAMED IN RICHMOND HEIGHTS

J. N. Jensen and F. E. Stillman Selected for Mayor, but One of Them May Withdraw.
About 150 citizens of Richmond Heights met last night at the school building in that municipality and placed in nomination a "Good Government" ticket to be presented at the municipal election there April 6. Two candidates for Mayor were nominated, Mayor James N. Jensen and Fred E. Stillman of 7529 Hawthorne avenue, a coffee salesman. Stillman told the Post-Dispatch reporter today that in all probability there would be only one candidate of the "Good Government" forces, indicating that an agreement would be reached between himself and Jensen whereby one of them would withdraw.

It is expected that the forces, which opposed the recent annexation to Richmond Heights of Forest Park and the territory surrounding Campbell's Forest Home, will meet Monday night and name an opposition ticket.

GIRL, 9, BITTEN BY ANOTHER WHO TELLS OF BEING TEASED

Dorothy La Page, 9 years old, of 1306 North Fourteenth street, was bitten on the arm and wrist near her home at 6 p. m. yesterday by Freda Schmidt, 11 years old, of 1330 Monroe street. The wounds were treated at the city dispensary. The Schmidt girl was not arrested.

Freda Schmidt is the daughter of August Schmidt, a baker. Her mother told policemen other children in the neighborhood were in the habit of teasing Freda, who is kept out of school on a doctor's orders. The La Page girl denied that she gave provocation for the biting.

Mrs. Joseph Squires of 1318 Chamberlain street, told policemen the Schmidt girl bit her daughter, Edith, 9 years old, about two weeks ago.

REVIEWS OF NEW BOOKS

NEW BOOKS FOR THE WEEK

AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Any of these books will be sent by parcel post to card holders on application of postage, in order of application.

HEALTH OF THE TEACHER. by W. E. Chubb. To help teachers maintain their health in spite of unhealthy surroundings and bad conditions, thus enabling them to thwart and overcome all tendencies to disease, to quicken and develop joy in being alive and to postpone death.

GREAT LAKES NAVAL STATION. by F. Buzzell. A story of how and why the Great Lakes Naval Training Station suddenly grew to be the largest in the world. Well illustrated.

OUR ITALIAN FELLOW CITIZENS. by F. E. Clark. Dr. F. E. Clark, the founder and president of the Christian Endeavor Societies, in order to further, has given here a sympathetic treatment of their history, racial characteristics and their mode of living both at home and abroad.

A LOITERER IN NEW ENGLAND. by H. W. Henderson. Author of "A Loiterer in New York." Here we see New England as the artist and poet sees it, with special emphasis upon the historic places and things so treasured by the lovers of New England.

THE KINDERGARTEN. by N. C. Vandenberg. The story of the kindergarten in America involving those great statesmen, public-spirited men and women, and far-seeing philanthropists who have faithfully served to establish the kindergarten in our public school system. The author is the director of kindergarten training in the Milwaukee State Normal School.

TEN MILLION PHOTOPLAY PLOTS. by W. A. Hill. To those who possess creative ability and who aspire to become successful writers for the screen, stage or press, the author gives a complete and basic dramatic situations from which ten million plots may be formed. Photoplay censorship regulations are also given.

LEGENDS OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. by G. W. Caldwell. A collection of beautiful legends in both prose and poetic form founded on stories of the Soboba Indians of Southern California. One story, "The Blue Lizard," is an explanation of the scientific fact that the blue lizard is found only in the region of the San Jacinto Mountains at an altitude exceeding 1500 feet above sea level.

INDEPENDENT BOHEMIA. by V. Nesek. An account of the Czech-Slovak struggle for liberty. The author, who is secretary to the Czech-Slovak legation in London, bodily and all such subjects as Austria-Hungary, Czech political parties before and during the war, terrorism in Bohemia during the war, Bohemia as a bulwark against pan-Germanism and the oath of the Czech-Slovak nation.

THE MESSAGE OF ANTON SIMON. by Otto Simon. The husband of the alleged writer of the messages. Purported communications after death from a wife to her surviving husband. Automatic writing was the medium, and the book is a collection of letters for anyone who is investigating spiritualism but, like all other documents of this character, the communications are vague and of no help in determining just what is on the other side. The purported author assures us there is no death but without giving us any conclusive proof of her assurance is authentic. (Badger.)

"Reading in Literature." Selections for readers in the eighth grade of the public schools. A highly commendable collection of prose and verse, both from the standpoint of culture and interest. (Charles E. Merrill Co., New York.)

"Gun Fodder." by Maj. A. Hamilton. Glimpses of the British army, with an introduction by the author's brother, Philip Gibbs, a noted war correspondent. A vivid account of the author's experience during four years of fighting. Gibbs entered the army as an enlisted man and won his promotion by gallantry in action. The horrors he encountered have made him a vigorous opponent of war and his story is terrific protest against it. He has a fine talent for writing and he has given us one of the most interesting volumes of personal reminiscence to come out of the war. (Little, Brown & Co.)

"Graphology." by Hugo J. von Hagen, Ph. D., M. Th. H. to read character from handwriting. The book has been so prepared that it is interesting to experts as well as students and laymen. Full of illustrations of different styles of handwriting with the author's interpretation of character as revealed by each. A very fascinating book about a very fascinating subject. (Robert R. Ross.)

"Rebuilding Europe in the Face of World-Wide Bolshevism." by Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis. A survey of conditions in Europe after the war and what they portend for the rest of the world. Dr. Hillis was one of the foremost critics of Bolshevism in this country. Law and reverence for God are what the world needs most of all now, he holds. (Fleming H. Revell Co.)

"Special Correspondence." by Ralph Starr Butler and Henry B. A thoroughly practical volume on business letter writing, which not only considers all forms of business communications, but gives constructive information on how to write business letters that convince and follow-up letters. One of the volumes in the "Commercial Education" series. (D. Appleton & Co.)

"The Drama in Italy." CHAPTER on Gabriele d'Annunzio is naturally one of the most interesting features of "The Contemporary Drama of Italy," by Lander MacClintock. The book is a series of which has included similar volumes on the contemporary drama of England, Ireland and France. Giuseppe Giacomini and Roberto Bracco are two other authors whose work is treated at length, and the early and later realists, futurists, and the state of acting and of the theater, are discussed. (Little, Brown.)

A NOVEL OF CHINA. IN the novel "Mr. Wu," by Louise Jordan Miln, made from the play of the same title, the author weaves her story by too much parenthetical detail. The story itself is of the "Poor Butterfly" variety, with a Chinese vengeance that is traditional. There are moments of intense interest, of tender love scenes and interesting descriptions of Chinese life, but the little details, told in parentheses, occur so often as to mar the story. (Stokes.)

The Newest Books.

"The Flow of Value," by Logan Grant McPherson. Treatise on cause and effect in determining prices, wages and profits. An argument that perfect co-ordination in production of things and services in due relation to demand, and the employment for all who are unemployed and abundance for everyone. (Century Co.)

"Direct Method of Teaching English to Foreigners," by Isaac Price, A. M. An exposition of simple method, growing out of experience of acquainting candidates for citizenship with a vocabulary suited to his needs in the shortest possible time. This book is in use in the New York City day and night schools. (Lloyd Adams Noble.)

"The Contemporary Drama of Italy," by Lander MacClintock, Ph. D. A survey of conditions in Italy today, with a brief analysis of the Italian dramatic genius and tradition in the United States. Includes d'Annunzio and other chapters dealing with writers now popular in Italy. (Little, Brown & Co.)

"Liberalism in America," by Harold Stearns, former editor of the Dial. The author considers liberalism as a tolerant and rational attitude rather than as a specific political and economic creed. An argument that we have traveled far from our former habits of thought and a prediction that, if we do not recover from "the present war hysteria," the next 20 years will be an era of brutal dogmatism, violence and tyranny tempered only by assassination. A vigorous attack on our political tendencies. (Boni & Liveright.)

"Our Nervous Friends," by Robert S. Carroll, M. D., medical director of Highland Hospital, Asheville, N. C. Illustrating the masterful life, vividly portrays the life stories of victims of nervousness and points the way to deal with such cases. Out of his large experience, he has deduced certain fundamental principles to guide one in dealing with nervous addicts. The book is enlivened by a keen sense of humor and some very dramatic illustrations. (Macmillan.)

"Commercial Research," by C. S. Duncan. An outline of working principles. The author is assistant professor of commercial organization in Chicago University and special expert with the United States Department of Commerce. The need of business today is intelligent direction and control and this is possible only with an adequate grasp of business principles. This book is an effort to supply an understanding of these principles by a comprehensive survey of business facts. (Macmillan.)

"The Woman of Forty," by Dr. E. B. Lowry. Of vital interest to the woman approaching middle age, giving complete and reliable advice in caring for the health. Another of Dr. Lowry's sex hygiene series. (Fisher & Co.)

"The Message of Anton Simon," with an introduction by Otto Simon. The husband of the alleged writer of the messages. Purported communications after death from a wife to her surviving husband. Automatic writing was the medium, and the book is a collection of letters for anyone who is investigating spiritualism but, like all other documents of this character, the communications are vague and of no help in determining just what is on the other side. The purported author assures us there is no death but without giving us any conclusive proof of her assurance is authentic. (Badger.)

"Reading in Literature." Selections for readers in the eighth grade of the public schools. A highly commendable collection of prose and verse, both from the standpoint of culture and interest. (Charles E. Merrill Co., New York.)

"Gun Fodder." by Maj. A. Hamilton. Glimpses of the British army, with an introduction by the author's brother, Philip Gibbs, a noted war correspondent. A vivid account of the author's experience during four years of fighting. Gibbs entered the army as an enlisted man and won his promotion by gallantry in action. The horrors he encountered have made him a vigorous opponent of war and his story is terrific protest against it. He has a fine talent for writing and he has given us one of the most interesting volumes of personal reminiscence to come out of the war. (Little, Brown & Co.)

"Graphology." by Hugo J. von Hagen, Ph. D., M. Th. H. to read character from handwriting. The book has been so prepared that it is interesting to experts as well as students and laymen. Full of illustrations of different styles of handwriting with the author's interpretation of character as revealed by each. A very fascinating book about a very fascinating subject. (Robert R. Ross.)

"Rebuilding Europe in the Face of World-Wide Bolshevism." by Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis. A survey of conditions in Europe after the war and what they portend for the rest of the world. Dr. Hillis was one of the foremost critics of Bolshevism in this country. Law and reverence for God are what the world needs most of all now, he holds. (Fleming H. Revell Co.)

"Special Correspondence." by Ralph Starr Butler and Henry B. A thoroughly practical volume on business letter writing, which not only considers all forms of business communications, but gives constructive information on how to write business letters that convince and follow-up letters. One of the volumes in the "Commercial Education" series. (D. Appleton & Co.)

"The Drama in Italy." CHAPTER on Gabriele d'Annunzio is naturally one of the most interesting features of "The Contemporary Drama of Italy," by Lander MacClintock. The book is a series of which has included similar volumes on the contemporary drama of England, Ireland and France. Giuseppe Giacomini and Roberto Bracco are two other authors whose work is treated at length, and the early and later realists, futurists, and the state of acting and of the theater, are discussed. (Little, Brown.)

A NOVEL OF CHINA. IN the novel "Mr. Wu," by Louise Jordan Miln, made from the play of the same title, the author weaves her story by too much parenthetical detail. The story itself is of the "Poor Butterfly" variety, with a Chinese vengeance that is traditional. There are moments of intense interest, of tender love scenes and interesting descriptions of Chinese life, but the little details, told in parentheses, occur so often as to mar the story. (Stokes.)

A WOOD CAMPAIGN BOOK.

GEN. LEONARD WOOD'S work for national preparedness in the vital important period preceding the entrance of the United States into the war, is emphasized in "Leonard Wood—Soldier, Administrator, Citizen," by Prof. William H. Hobbs of the University of Michigan. Two men, both now dead, are named as sharing with Gen. Wood the prime credit for the preparedness movement. These are Theodore Roosevelt and Augustus P. Gardner, the Massachusetts Congressman, who gave an early warning of this nation's danger. Others mentioned as pioneers in the defense movement are George Haven Putnam, James M. Beck and Henry A. Wise Wood, who wrote the introduction to the book.

Feb. 23, 1915, a general order was issued directing army officers to refrain from giving out for publication any interview, statement, discussion or article on the military situation in the United States or abroad. "Had this order been strictly obeyed by Gen. Wood," the author says, "it is not unlikely that the war might have had a different ending." Extracts from Gen. Wood's letters and reports are compared with some of President Wilson's utterances, and Gen. Wood's work for the Plattburg camps, which he began organizing in 1913, and in which 20,000 men were trained in the three years following, is outlined.

In the matter relating to Gen. Wood's earlier work, the testimony of his commanding officer in the Apache campaign, Capt. (later General) H. W. Lawton, is given. The charge has lately been made that Gen. Wood's services in that campaign, for which he afterward received the Congressional Medal of Honor, were overrated. Capt. Lawton, however, wrote:

"His services as a combat or line officer, voluntarily performed, were of the highest order. He sought the most difficult and dangerous work. It was mainly due to Capt. Wood's leadership and resolution that the expedition was successful."

The book contains several portraits of Gen. Wood and persons associated with him, with a rotogravure frontispiece. (Putnam.)

SONGS TO NEW YORK. The charms of New York City's skyline, its Broadway and its seething masses are all set forth to wood advantage in "The Might of Manhattan," by the poet, D. McManus, which has been published with other of his poems in book form. Says McManus of New York:

"These panoramic signboards where, behold! Proud Progress paints her own advertisement—
• • • • •
A miniature Alps in serried files
Of many-storied structures reared in lords
Within a radius of a dozen miles
Here half a dozen million souls reside—
A medley of all nations unified."

The accompanying poems show a diversion of thought and style. (Charles Francis Press.)

AMUSEMENTS.
GRAND IS 9
OPERA HOUSE 30c
JUNIOR THEATRE
Orpheum Circuit
THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS
A timely review with CLAUDE WEST
"LET'S GO" Fun in a
with BATHURST, VERT & MORRIS
"OUR HOME LIFE"
Paul Kiehl & Co.—Haddon & Norman
NORA NORRIS—19th Street
"The Great Smoother" Sunshine Comedy

COLUMBIA 15c 30c
11 A. M.—Continuous Daily—11 P. M.
The Aeroplane Girls
RAWSON & CLARE
JACK-GEORGE DFO
FOUR HARMONY KINGS
Y. M. C. A. PICTURE "NO ADDRESS"
Olive Thomas
IN "TOOTH FOLLY"

Rialto
6-10 VAUDEVILLE ACTS—6
STELLA MAYHEW—"The Cheerful Comedian"
Taylor, Billy McDermott Survivor of Ceter's Army, EDDIE BORDEN—"Our Little Sister"
POURRI—Vaudeville's Supreme Novelty
NORA NORRIS—19th Street
Unit Classic, EQUILLO BROTHERS
Kinogram News Weekly
Prices: Dorian Week, 15c and 25c
Sunday Nights—Reserved, 15c and 45c War Tax Additional

LOEW'S GARRICK
Continues 1 to 11, 15c-35c
MUMFORD & STANLEY
GEORGE RANDALL & CO.
In the Comedy Gem
"TOO EASY"
And 3 Other Big Acts FRANK MAYO
in "Barat Wings"

GAYETY MAT. DAILY
Best Show in Town
NEXT WEEK—HIP-POP HOORAY

STANDARD
Matinee Daily—Ladies 10c
THE AVIATOR GIRLS
NEXT—THE PACEMAKERS
LOFTIS BROS. & CO.
DIAMONDS, WATCHES
GRUB AT CUT PRICES

What They Are Doing in the Movies

THE SPORTING DUCHESS COMES TO SCREEN

Madame Nazimova and Mildred Harris Chaplin Also on Week's Bills.

That famous Drury Lane Theater melodramatic success, "The Sporting Duchess," with Alice Joyce in the leading role, will be the week's principal attraction at the Liberty Theater. Here is an unusual combination of play and star that is certain to be interesting.

Miss Joyce has the part of Muriel, Duchess of Desborough. Of course, there is a Duke and there is a villainous plot for him and the Duchess to separate. Their fates rest on the outcome of the derby, England's classic racing event. The race scene was filmed at New Orleans and old-time turf followers said that this speed contest as produced for the movie camera was the most exciting they ever witnessed.

On the Liberty bill also will be "Durand of the Bad Lands," featuring Dustin Farnum, who has the role of a bad man with a good heart who is regenerated by a woman's love. There also will be a Vitaphone comedy, a Mutt and Jeff cartoon comedy and a Fox News Weekly.

At the Kings Theater Mme. Alla Nazimova will be seen in her latest production, "Stronger Than Death." This is an adaptation of a novel by I. A. R. Wylie, the scenes being laid in India.

Nazimova has the part of a dancing girl. In one scene she dances on the steps of a sacred temple in the moonlight, the natives believing that she is a reincarnation of their favorite goddess. In this way she aids in quelling a native uprising. On the bill also will be a number of short-reel features.

At the Pershing feature picture will be "The Cost," a film version of a famous novel by David Graham Phillips. In this Violet Heming has the leading role, that of Pauline Gardner, who marries a rich man while still a boarding school pupil and lives to regret it. One of the big scenes shows a Wall Street panic.

Mildred Harris Chaplin will be the star at the New Grand Central in "The Inferior Sex," a screen version of a play in which Maxine Elliott scored a success. Alla Axina, "mind reader," will be on for a second week. Dorothy Gish in "Mary Ellen Comes to Town" will be the feature attraction for four days at the West End Lyric, beginning tomorrow afternoon. This is the story of a young woman who tires of the slow and uneventful life of a small town and goes to New York, where she becomes a dancer in a Broadway cafe. On the bill also will be a Harold Lloyd comedy, "Capt. Kidd's Kids," and a number of short reel features.

Flashes From Filmland

Antonio Moreno is visiting San Francisco and Del Monte, Cal., resting after his six months of uninterrupted work on "The Invisible Hand."

A banquet for 200 persons was staged several days ago at Vitaphone's Brooklyn studio for a scene in Alice Joyce's coming special production "Dollars and the Woman." Professional cabaret dancers and an orchestra from one of New York's famous hotels were features of the occasion.

Picture fans throughout the country await with interest the appearance of Marjorie Benton Cooke's "The Incubus," which was lately purchased by Thomas H. Luce as a starring vehicle for Enid Bennett.

Frank Crayne has been brought from New York to play an important part in support of Earle Williams in his next feature, which will be made in the Pacific Coast.

The largest single covered stage in America is now being constructed at Universal City and will increase the production capacity at the film capital. It is nearly 400 feet in length and 150 feet in width, and is being fully equipped with an individual power and lighting plant.

Because of the great demand for New Testament stories, The Historical Film Corporation of America is

AMUSEMENTS.
AMERICAN Matinee Today, 2:15
Last Time Tonight
A NATIONAL NECESSITY
RAYMOND HITCHCOCK
Hitchy Koo, 1919
In His Youngest and Best Musical Role
Chorus of 40 Under 30

Orpheum
THE BEST IN VAUDEVILLE
(Orpheum Circuit)
2:15—TWICE EVERY WEEK—8:15
CHARLES KING & CO.
Bert Hanlon; Jenn Adair
MAUD LAMBERT and ERNEST BALL
Keene & Williams; Herbert's Dogs
WINSTON'S WATER LILIES
Mats. 12c to 50c; Evns. 25c to $1.00

SHUBERT-JEFFERSON
Matinee Today, 2:15; Tonight, 8:15
The Comedy of Ripping Laughter
A. H. Woods
LOUIS MANN
In the Brilliant American Comedy
Friendly Enemies
Seats Now Selling For Next Week

MAX ROSEN
Violin Soloist, with
St. Louis Symphony Orchestra
MAX ZACH, Conductor
Tickets 10c to $2.50. Box Seats, $1.00
1111 Olive St. No War Tax.

WEST END LYRIC—TODAY—Dorothy Dalton
"BLACK IS WHITE"
"NO ADDRESS"—A St. Louis Production
"G.W. White"—Sensational Comedy
West End Lyric Review
DAVID H. SILVERMAN'S ORCHESTRA
Continuous 2:30 to 11 Admission 30c and 44c

NEW GRAND CENTRAL PALACE OF MASTER PICTURES
GRAND AND LUCAS
ALLA AXIOM
Mind Reader and Crystal Gazer Sees All! Knows All!
Ask Him—He Will Tell You Anything
Prices, Including War Tax: Before 6 P. M., 25c; After 6 P. M., 35c and 40c SHOWS START PROMPTLY AT 1, 3, 5, 7, AND 9 P. M.
Alla Appears Only at 2:30, 7 and 9 P. M. Humfeld's Concert Orchestra

WILLIAM FOX LIBERTY
Last Showing Today
Dale Foster—Four Stars
Daily Mat. 2:15—15c
30c
William Fox Presents TOM MIX in "THE DAREDEVIL" GLADYS BROCKWELL, GEORGE WALSH, MIRIAM COOPER
in "THE HONOR SYSTEM"
Sunshine Comedy, "THE HEARTY SNATCHER" FOX NEWS WEEKLY AND THE HONOR SYSTEM
HORNMAN'S SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

DELMAR
THE BEST IN VAUDEVILLE
Klaine Hammerstein in
"GREATLY THEATRE"
Antonio Moreno in
"THE INVISIBLE HAND."

Local Screen Features

West End Lyric—Dorothy Gish in "Mary Ellen Comes to Town." Liberty—Alice Joyce in "The Sporting Duchess." New Grand Central—Mildred Harris Chaplin in "The Inferior Sex."

Kings—Alla Nazimova in "Stronger Than Death." Pershing—Violet Heming in "The Cost."

Harry Hilliard, Ray Ripley, Robert Bolder, Ruth Royce, Arthur Hoyt and "Bull" Montana.

Edith Johnson, leading lady to William Duncan in his serial, is the chief reason why no home is complete without a camera. She is the girl who used to ornament the back cover of the leading magazine and tell you that a photograph was the only present you could give your friends that they couldn't buy.

Priscilla Dean knows all about the fashions for next spring and summer as the result of her recent expedition in connection with the Orient in the coming season's millinery, with Chinese models predominating.

Jack Ford has completed the final scenes of "The Girl in Number 29," the story by Elizabeth Jordan starring Frank Mayo. The original novel, "The Girl in the Mirror," was a best seller, and its unique plot, containing a story within a story, has been faithfully carried out with the assistance of a splendid cast including Claire Anderson, Elinor Fair.

It is reported that James Oliver Curwood, author of "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," "The River's End" and "Back to God's Country," is to form his own film producing company. Curwood is 42 years old and lives in Orosco, Mich.

Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran are progressing rapidly with their comedy feature, "Everything but the Truth," from the amusing magazine story by Edgar Franklin. The popular fun fingers are supported principally by Anne Cornwall, Katherine Lewis and Nelson McDowell.

PHOTO PLAY THEATERS

Leading Theaters Presenting Paramount-Artcraft Pictures

KINGS

LAST TIME TODAY

Clara Kimball Young

—IN—

"EYES OF YOUTH"

Hear the Kings

Concert Orchestra

Bargain Matinee Week Days 2:30—All Seats, Adults, 25c; Children, 15c; Evnings 7 and 9—Prices: Adults, 25c and 35c; Children, 15c and 25c, including war tax.

Starting Tomorrow

NAZIMOVA

—AS—

SIGRID, The Dancing Girl

—IN—

"Stronger Than Death"

Bargain Matinee Week Days 2:30—All Seats, Adults, 25c; Children, 15c; Evnings 7 and 9—Prices: Adults, 25c and 35c; Children, 15c and 25c, including war tax.

PERSHING

LAST TIME TODAY

Douglas Fairbanks

In His Great Success

"When the Clouds Roll By"

If You're Blue You Should Visit the Pershing Today.

Bargain Matinee Today—Adults, 25c; Children, 15c, including war tax.

Starting Tomorrow

"THE COST"

With VIOLET HEMING

Star of "Everywoman"

Taken From the Famous Novel by David Graham Phillips.

Bargain Matinee Today—Adults, 25c; Children, 15c, including war tax.

ROYAL SIXTH NEAR OLIVE

Continuous 10 A. M. to Screen Features

Lyric—Dorothy Gish
Then Comes to Town.
Alice Joyce in "The uchess."
and Central—Mildred
plin in "The Inferior lla Nazimova in han Death."
d. Ray Ripley, Robert Royce, Arthur Hoyt
Montana.

son, leading lady for mean in his serials, is ason why no home is about a camera. She a used to ornament the of the leading magazine that a photograph was ent you could give your they couldn't buy.

ams is finishing "Cap-his next Vitaphone feathe direction of Chester scenes are being made Desert and near San

ted that James Oliver hor of "The Courage of ne," "The River's End" o God's Country," is to in film producer compound is 42 years old and so, Mich.

ms and Lee Moran are rapidly with their com-
"Everything but the
the amusing magazine ar Franklin. The popers are supported principle Cornwall, Katherine elson McDowell.

PLAY THEATERS
Artcraft Pictures
AY and DELMAR
E DAILY

Tomorrow
IMOVA

MAR AT MILTON

TOMORROW
COST" ET HEMING
verywoman"

from the Fa-el by David illips.

DS
ND
R OLIVE
1. to 11 P. M.

MENT
AN"

Cents; War Cents

E TODAY THEATERS

oman"
FFORD TO ICTURE
RY!

omorrow
HEATERS
erhead"
RYMORE
E OF THE CIVIL ELY PLAYED ENTED.

SUFFRAGE SITUATION MAY DELAY BOND VOTE

Arnold Proposes That Election
Be Postponed and Counselor Considers Matter.

The question of postponing the $24,000,000 bond issue election from May 11 to a later date, was proposed yesterday by Chairman Arnold of the Election Board, and is being considered today by the city legal department, the point in issue being the status of the woman suffrage amendment to the Constitution. Chairman Arnold pointed out that the suffrage amendment has been ratified by only 24 states, and says more are needed. If these two are obtained before March 25, women will be permitted to register that day for the bond election, he said. However, the ratification by both Missouri and West Virginia is being attacked and he says if it should subsequently be held that ratification in those states was not legal, the amendment would not be effective, and if women had previously voted at the bond issue, the bonds would be invalidated, granting that they had carried.

Mayor Kiel said today that he had referred Arnold's statement to City Counselor Daues. The latter said that he was inquiring into it. He said he was of the opinion, offhand, that Chairman Arnold was unduly alarmed, but he would have to investigate further before making any decision. The Mayor said he was loath to postpone the election, although anxious to have the women vote, as he felt a great majority of them would favor it.

Chairman Arnold indicated another contingency. He said it is possible that the needed two states might not ratify before March 25, but might do so soon afterward. The law provides that voters must register at least seven weeks before election. In such a contingency the women would have the vote by May 11, but would not have been qualified to register a full seven weeks before then, and consequently would not be allowed to vote.

8-CENT FARES ARE EXTENDED UNTIL APRIL 15

Public Service Commission Issues Order Continuing Present Rates Temporarily by Three to One Vote.

COMMISSIONER BEAN
OPPOSES THE ACTION

Declares Burden Was on Receiver and That He Failed to Show Increased Revenue Was Necessary.

The present rates of street car fare, which were to have expired today, were given a new lease of life yesterday by the State Public Service Commission at Jefferson City, which ordered that they be continued in effect until April 15. The rates are 8 cents cash fare, 7 1/2 cents when tokens are purchased from conductors and 7 cents when tokens are purchased in larger quantities at the United Railways offices or from designated agencies.

A hearing on Receiver Wells' application to continue the present rates was concluded yesterday. The city opposed the rates and introduced testimony and arguments to show that the company could earn a fair return with a 7-cent cash fare and a ticket rate of four for 25 cents.

Bean Only Dissenter.
Commissioner Bean dissented from the order and wrote a minority opinion in which he said the United Railways Co. should not charge a higher fare than 7 cents for adults and 3 cents for children. The majority opinion was signed by Chairman Busby and Commissioners Simpson and Blair.

After the order had been issued Chairman Busby said this action was taken to give the commission time to examine the exhibits and review the testimony at the hearing. The commission, he said, would pass on the receiver's application April 15 and decide whether it would continue the present rates or put in other rates pending completion of the audit and valuation of the company's property, which audit and valuation will be finished about June 1.

Burden on Receiver.
Commissioner Bean in his dissenting opinion said: "The burden rests upon the receiver to justify a continuance of the higher rates heretofore authorized for carrying passengers upon the lines of the United Railways Company. The receiver has failed to discharge that burden, as I view it, as to the fares for passengers carried upon the lines of the company. Therefore the commission should decline to extend the present rates and should not continue the present rates for a further temporary period ending April 15, because if the commission should then hold the present rates to be excessive the public will have no means of recovering the overcharges, although the evidence upon which the continuance of the present rates is to be ruled is now before the commission and whatever order is now made should be a determination of the question at issue rather than a postponement of a decision."

"The receiver should be authorized to charge for carrying adult passengers upon the lines of the United Railways fares not in excess of seven cents and three cents for children between the ages of 5 and 12 years."

AUTO DRIVER FLEES AFTER HIS CAR STRIKES WOMAN

Mrs. W. D. Jones Seriously Hurt
Wednesday, Police Learn—8-Year-Old Girl Also Injured.

Mrs. Walter D. Jones, 50 years old, of the Parkhurst Hotel, 223 North Taylor avenue, was reported in a critical condition at her home today as the result of being struck by an automobile that sped away after knocking her down at Euclid and McPherson avenues at 6 p. m. Wednesday.

Mrs. Jones reported she was crossing McPherson avenue when an eastbound touring car struck her. The driver sped away. A witness gave the police a license number. Tracing this the police learned it was issued to persons not living in St. Louis. Mrs. Jones suffered concussion of the brain, a fractured nose, fractured fingers of the left hand and internal hurts.

Helen Zorick, 8 years old, of 1441 St. Ange avenue, suffered scalp wounds, cuts and bruises at 6 p. m. yesterday, when struck by an automobile driven by Walter B. Codington, 2725 Utah street, at Twelfth street and Chouteau avenue. Codington said the child ran in the path of the machine as she crossed the street.

MAN IS STABBED IN STRUGGLE

Joseph Leary, 28 years old, of 2936 Maffitt avenue, a clerk for the Columbia Transfer Co., who was found at Broadway and Spruce street at 6 p. m. yesterday stabbed in the left breast, told the police he did not know the identity of his assailant. He was taken to the city hospital.

Leary said he had stepped into a soft drink saloon near the corner for a sugar and on leaving had been followed by three men who attacked him without provocation. One of them, he said, drew a knife and stabbed him when he attempted to

BUNDY'S RELEASE ON BOND PENDING APPEAL ORDERED

Wife of Negro, Sentenced to Life Term for Race Riot, Active in Getting Him Out of Prison.

The release today from the Southern Illinois penitentiary of Leroy N. Bundy, negro dentist and former race leader in East St. Louis, was authorized yesterday by Judge Orin N. Carter of the State Supreme Court, pending the disposal of an appeal to the Supreme Court. Bundy is serving a life sentence for murder in connection with the race riots of July 2, 1917.

He was convicted in a trial at Waterloo, Ill., a year ago, and was taken to prison. Meantime, the case was appealed, and Bundy's wife, who has been active in his behalf throughout his trouble, had been making efforts temporarily to obtain his release. The result was that Justice Carter yesterday issued a writ of superseas, authorizing Bundy's release under heavy bond. The Supreme Court will pass on the case at the June term.

Negroes throughout the country have contributed to Bundy's defense, which was made a national race issue. Race publications generally have denounced the case as persecution. Bundy was charged with organizing and arming the negro mob which killed Detectives Coppedge and Wodley, and participated in the riot.

CHURCH SOLICITOR STEALS GEMS

Woman Asks for Water, Then Disappears With Diamonds.

A poorly dressed woman, about 60 years old, called at the residence of Mrs. Adolph A. Moll, 6023 Enright avenue, wife of the president of the A. Moll Grocery Co., yesterday afternoon, and said she was soliciting funds for a church. She was ushered into a front room.

When Mrs. Moll appeared the visitor said that she felt weak, and asked for a glass of water. Mrs. Moll went to get the water, and when she returned the woman had departed. A diamond studded pendant in the shape of a horseshoe, valued at $500, which had been on a table in the front room, was missing.

PATIENT STRANGLD BY STRAP THAT TIED HIM TO BED

John F. Goodwin Rolls in Sleep at City Sanitarium and in Helpless Condition Is Killed.

John F. Goodwin, 25 years old, of 3954 Folsom avenue, a patient at the city sanitarium, was found dead early yesterday, strangled by a strap that had been used to keep him from rolling out of bed in his helpless condition. The strap and a towel that had been tied to one of his legs held the body suspended between the bed and floor.

Goodwin was taken to the sanitarium Feb. 23, 1919, and was bedridden. He rolled off his bed in the night on several occasions, so attendants rigged up a sort of harness to keep him from harming himself. It consisted of the strap tied to one shoulder and a towel to the opposite leg.

He apparently had rolled over in his sleep, falling over the side on the strap, and had choked to death before his body was noticed. An inquest will be held. His wife, Edna, lives at 3915 McRee avenue.

What's a Banquet? says Bobby

For me it's a bottle of milk and a package of

POST TOASTIES

"I'm having my lunch now!"

How Bond Bread was created

Hundreds of skillful housewives baked loaves of home-made bread in their own kitchens and submitted them in the Bond Bread Baking Contest.

Then a committee of representative women selected the best of these home-baked loaves.

Expert bakers then copied the crisp brown crust, the firm even texture, the delicious home-made taste of those home-made loaves.

The new loaf was called Bond Bread because the purity of every ingredient is guaranteed by the Bond of the General
Baking Company.

Bond Bread is so named because each loaf bears this bond of the General
Baking Company.

His chubby cheeks tell you he's a Bond Bread baby

His cheeks are like round, rosy apples—his muscles firm—his bones straight and strong.

Hours of healthy play—plenty of sleep—and lots of Bond Bread
—these are his three secrets of health.

Bond Bread is good food for children because it is patterned after the best home-made bread.

The purity of every ingredient is guaranteed by the Bond of the General Baking Company.

And the Bond Bread process makes each crumb yield its full nourishment in its most digestible form.

Bond Bread

Made as the Housewives showed us

A Bushel of Interest

"Save" a little off your salary each week, and deposit it in a savings account with the Mercantile Trust Company.

The interest is compounded semi-annually.

Daddy, Mother, Willie and Susie Thrift are all savers.

ARE YOU?

If not, start a savings account with—

"THE INSTITUTION FOR SAVINGS"

ONE Dollar ONE Starts ONE

Mercantile Trust Company Member Federal Reserve System
EIGHTH and LOCUST
—TO ST. CHARLES
Capital and Surplus, $10,000,000

MEN!

The greatest asset you have is your strength. You can't afford to give out. It is a vital necessity that you have your nervous and muscular system in perfect order to withstand the constant wear and tear of your daily work.

The finest tissue builder and strength creator is Vinol, a Cod Liver preparation (without oil) only the valuable medicinal properties being combined with peptonate of iron and other body-building and strength creating elements. Its use will keep you in health and strength.

DEBILITY
results from a weakened condition due to imperfect digestion, lack of nutrition or overwork. Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates a healthy appetite and makes new blood. You lose that fatigue, weakness and run down feeling when you take Vinol.

NERVOUSNESS
Is a complaint that can be readily overcome by using Vinol. It repairs broken down nervous tissue and builds strong, healthy nerves that enable you to withstand the worries and annoyances unavoidable in business.

BRAIN FAG
won't attack you if you repair used-up nerve force with Vinol. Vinol puts strength into your system—it gives you vitality and energy—it nourishes your brain and body and keeps you in a perfect state of health—it quickly re-establishes strength after any severe illness.

DYSPEPSIA is due to derangement of the digestive organs and their inability to assimilate nourishment. Vinol strengthens the overtaxed and weakened digestive nerves and helps your stomach do its work.

Vinol Creates Strength

YOUR MONEY BACK IF VINOL FAILS TO HELP YOU

Chester Kent & Company, Chemists. Vinol is sold in St. Louis by the Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. and other druggists.

And at the Leading Drug Stores in every town and City in this State.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various food items and their prices.

RENT-INCOME STOPPED? Oh no, that's not a calamity. It's just one of those happenings which the P-D. "WANT" Ads can remedy.

DEATHS

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

Entered into rest on Saturday, March 23, 1920, at 10:30 a. m. Henry N. Jones, 65 years old, of St. Louis, Mo. Buried in St. Peter's cemetery.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

As we have no information bureau, it is impossible to answer queries by mail or telephone. Query for Sunday must be mailed a week before hand.

MRS. WICK. See answer to Mrs. P. S. Glasgow and Stoddard street in Ward 19, Precinct 3.

KATE W. The Legal Aid Bureau is in the Municipal Courts Building. A. R. T. We are not in a position to give advice concerning business matters.

EX-SERVICE MAN. Missouri is not one of the States giving soldiers a bonus.

E. Z. BUSHHEAD. The Irons fire was during Christmas week 1918, in Chicago.

THE TELEGRAPH COMPANY. The telegraph company is a school of telegraphy at the main office of the telegraph company.

LOUIS SARAGLIA. Look in the telephone directory under the names and addresses wanted.

CURIOUS. President Wilson's marriage was on Dec. 18, 1918.

POST-READER. We do not have the name of the person who married again on Dec. 18, 1918.

G. L. If your first husband was the second marriage was illegal, and the second marriage was illegal.

E. M. P. The correct abbreviation for avenues is "avenues."

F. M. Addressing a firm in a business letter as "Gentlemen" and "Gentlemen" is correct.

P. Q. You can get many games of chance in the city.

ST. LOUIS. A soldier, sailor or marine must have the consent of his commanding officer if he wishes to get married.

IGNORANT. Unless he agreed to pay his share of the funeral expenses, he is not responsible.

DIVORCED ONE. A divorced woman is a woman who has been divorced.

READER. The headquarters of the Mississippi Valley Waterway is in St. Louis.

WORRIED. The widening of the street will take the houses on the west side of the street.

P. H. If you received legal notice to move and you have not moved, you are in violation of the law.

MRS. GRACE WILLIS. If you can prove that your son desired that the insurance be paid to you, you can get the full amount.

MRS. F. S. The law passed in 1917, authorizing allowances to mothers of children in the city of St. Louis.

N. H. You might inquire at the Washington University regarding a course in wireless telegraphy.

PACIFIC. The Macquarie Islands are in the Pacific Ocean.

P. D. READER. If you will watch the advertisements in the paper, you will find what you want.

HEALTH AND SANITATION. Questions of public interest will be answered.

QUESTIONS. Questions of public interest will be answered.

HELP WANTED-MEN, BOYS

YOUNG MAN. Good salary; no beer. Retail Store. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CABINET MAKER. Two men; one must be first class. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CARPENTER. Best man; 8200 Lindbergh. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

CHAFFETTER. For car and run automobile. 210 Columbia Ave. East St. 10th.

MECHANICS

Two instrument repair men familiar with small work to learn speedometer business; exceptional opportunity. Apply STEWART'S PRODUCTS SERVICE STATION, 3206 Locust. (c66)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MECHANICS—Several first class; best pay in town. 421 S. 6th st. (c67)

MECHANICS—Two thorough for magneto repair; one familiar with Bosch magneto preferred. HOLTHAUS SUPPLIES CO., 3235 Locust. (c67)

MACHINERY
FOR SALE

MACHINERY-For sale. A and Drill; good condition.
Elliot & Stephens Machine Co., 209 North Main,
St. Louis 8, Mo.

PRESS-A used press-A-1 make. Will realize. St. Louis 8, Mo.

HAVING PRESS-Automatic type. Call at once. 3706 Locust

FARM MACHINE

REPAIRS-John Thiers, 6-foot by 8-inch. Call 3126 S. Broadway

AUTOMOBILE

FOR HIRE

BIRD-Chevrolet, touring car. $1.50 per hour. Free mile - New 1930 Ford coupe, $1.25 hour. Free mile - 14-ton truck, by contract, service reasonable.

CONTRACT Wtd. - For Rm. 1
all buy new truck with firm
Box K-372. Post.

[illegible]

BODIES

DUMP BODIES, Commercial: and used, take Ford bodies and chassis, 1935-1936, 1937-1938, 1939-1940, 1941-1942, 1943-
1944, 1945-1946, 1947-1948, 1949-
1950, 1951-1952, 1953-1954, 1955-
1956, 1957-1958, 1959-1960, 1961-
1962, 1963-1964, 1965-1966, 1967-
1968, 1969-1970, 1971-1972, 1973-
1974, 1975-1976, 1977-1978, 1979-
1980, 1981-1982, 1983-1984, 1985-
1986, 1987-1988, 1989-1990, 1991-
1992, 1993-1994, 1995-1996, 1997-
1998, 1999-2000, 2001-2002, 2003-
2004, 2005-2006, 2007-2008, 2009-
2010, 2011-2012, 2013-2014, 2015-
2016, 2017-2018, 2019-2020, 2021-
2022, 2023-2024, 2025-2026, 2027-
2028, 2029-2030, 2031-2032, 2033-
2034, 2035-2036, 2037-2038, 2039-
2040, 2041-2042, 2043-2044, 2045-
2046, 2047-2048, 2049-2050, 2051-
2052, 2053-2054, 2055-2056, 2057-
2058, 2059-2060, 2061-2062, 2063-
2064, 2065-2066, 2067-2068, 2069-
2070, 2071-2072, 2073-2074, 2075-
2076, 2077-2078, 2079-2080, 2081-
2082, 2083-2084, 2085-2086, 2087-
2088, 2089-2090, 2091-2092, 2093-
2094, 2095-2096, 2097-2098, 2099-
2100, 2101-2102, 2103-2104, 2105-
2106, 2107-2108, 2109-2110, 2111-
2112, 2113-2114, 2115-2116, 2117-
2118, 2119-2120, 2121-2122, 2123-
2124, 2125-2126, 2127-2128, 2129-2130, 2131-2132, 2133-2134, 2135-
2136, 2137-2138, 2139-2140, 2141-
2142, 2143-2144, 2145-2146, 2147-
2148, 2149-2150, 2151-2152, 2153-
2154, 2155-2156, 2157-2158, 2159-
2160, 2161-2162, 2163-2164, 2165-
2166, 2167-2168, 2169-2170, 2171-
2172, 2173-2174, 2175-2176, 2177-
2178, 2179-2180, 2181-2182, 2183-
2184, 2185-2186, 2187-2188, 2189-
2190, 2191-2192, 2193-2194, 2195-
2196, 2197-2198, 2199-2200, 2201-
2202, 2203-2204, 2205-2206, 2207-
2208, 2209-2210, 2211-2212, 2213-
2214, 2215-2216, 2217-2218, 2219-
2220, 2221-2222, 2223-2224, 2225-
2226, 2227-2228, 2229-2230, 2231-
2232, 2233-2234, 2235-2236, 2237-
2238, 2239-2240, 2241-2242, 2243-
2244, 2245-2246, 2247-2248, 2249-
2250, 2251-2252, 2253-2254, 2255-
2256, 2257-2258, 2259-2260, 2261-
2262, 2263-2264, 2265-2266, 2267-
2268, 2269-2270, 2271-2272, 2273-
2274, 2275-2276, 2277-2278, 2279-2280, 2281-2282, 2283-2284, 2285-
2286, 2287-2288, 2289-2290, 2291-
2292, 2293-2294, 2295-2296, 2297-
2298, 2299-2300, 2301-2302, 2303-
2304, 2305-2306, 2307-2308, 2309-
2310, 2311-2312, 2313-2314, 2315-
2316, 2317-2318, 2319-2320, 2321-
2322, 2323-2324, 2325-2326, 2327-
2328, 2329-2330, 2331-2332, 2333-
2334, 2335-2336, 2337-2338, 2339-
2340, 2341-2342, 2343-2344, 2345-
2346, 2347-2348, 2349-2350, 2351-
2352, 2353-2354, 2355-2356, 2357-
2358, 2359-2360, 2361-2362, 2363-
2364, 2365-2366, 2367-2368, 2369-
2370, 2371-2372, 2373-2374, 2375-
2376, 2377-2378, 2379-2380, 2381-
2382, 2383-2384, 2385-2386, 2387-
2388, 2389-2390, 2391-2392, 2393-2394, 2395-2396, 2397-2398, 2399-
2400, 2401-2402, 2403-2404, 2405-2406, 2407-2408, 2409-2410, 2411-
2412, 2413-2414, 2415-2416, 2417-
2418, 2419-2420, 2421-2422, 2423-
2424, 2425-2426, 2427-2428, 2429-2430, 2431-2432, 2433-2434, 2435-
2436, 2437-2438, 2439-2440, 2441-
2442, 2443-2444, 2445-2446, 2447-
2448, 2449-2450, 2451-2452, 2453-
2454, 2455-2456, 2457-2458, 2459-
2460, 2461-2462, 2463-2464, 2465-
2466, 2467-2468, 2469-2470, 2471-
2472, 2473-2474, 2475-2476, 2477-
2478, 2479-2480, 2481-2482, 2483-
2484, 2485-2486, 2487-2488, 2489-
2490, 2491-2492, 2493-2494, 2495-
2496, 2497-2498, 2499-2500, 2501-
2502, 2503-2504, 2505-2506, 2507-
2508, 2509-2510, 2511-2512, 2513-
2514, 2515-2516, 2517-2518, 2519-
2520, 2521-2522, 2523-2524, 2525-
2526, 2527-2528, 2529-2530, 2531-
2532, 2533-2534, 2535-2536, 2537-
2538, 2539-2540, 2541-2542, 2543-
2544, 2545-2546, 2547-2548, 2549-
2550, 2551-2552, 2553-2554, 2555-
2556, 2557-2558, 2559-2560, 2561-
2562, 2563-2564, 2565-2566, 2567-
2568, 2569-2570, 2571-2572, 2573-
2574, 2575-2576, 2577-2578, 2579-
2580, 2581-2582, 2583-2584, 2585-
2586, 2587-2588, 2589-2590, 2591-
2592, 2593-2594, 2595-2596, 2597-
2598, 2599-2600, 2601-2602, 2603-
2604, 2605-2606, 2607-2608, 2609-
2610, 2611-2612, 2

ORD—Coupe; latest; regular

[illegible]

var. 210. Price $425. Call at 20

20 Roadster, good condition. 574 Delmar.
OVERLAND—Chummy roadster condition, wire wheels, 10 544.
ROADSTER—With generator
new tires and battery; will drive 40 m. rd.
ROADSTER—Ford, 1926 student in town, 5 white wire wheels, 5 new tires, 5 new springs, wheel, motor, mountain, 5 new tires, 5 new 601 Palmer.

[illegible]

below one; never been u
Garage 214 N. Grand.

TOURING C.
BUICK—1917 touring, m.
 2143A, Norwalk.
BUICK—Late 1910s, m.
 1100, bumper, $750.
BUICK—1920 touring, six cylinder, 2143A, Norwalk.
BUICK—Light six touring car, 2113, six wheels, 1917, 1918, 1919, 1920, 1921 spring in front chain running 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925, 1926, 1927.
CHRYSLER—1919 touring, m. for 12,000 miles, under chain for car.
CHRYSLER—Six cylinder touring, one extra condition, fully equipped, extra wheels & tires, extra low pressure, 1920, 1921, 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925, 1926, 1927,
 1928, 1929, 1930, 1931, 1932,
 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936, 1937,
 1938, 1939, 1940, 1941, 1942,
 1943, 1944, 1945, 1946, 1947,
 1948, 1949, 1950, 1951, 1952,
 1953, 1954, 1955, 1956, 1957,
 1958, 1959, 1960, 1961, 1962,
 1963, 1964, 1965, 1966, 1967,
 1968, 1969, 1970, 1971, 1972,
 1973, 1974, 1975, 1976, 1977,
 1978, 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982,
 1983, 1984, 1985, 1986, 1987,
 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992,
 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997,
 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002,
 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007,
 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012,
 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017,
 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022,
 2023, 2024, 2025, 2026, 2027,
 2028, 2029, 2030, 2031, 2032,
 2033, 2034, 2035, 2036, 2037,
 2038, 2039, 2040, 2041, 2042,
 2043, 2044, 2045, 2046, 2047,
 2048, 2049, 2050, 2051, 2052,
 2053, 2054, 2055, 2056, 2057,
 2058, 2059, 2060, 2061, 2062,
 2063, 2064, 2065, 2066, 2067,
 2068, 2069, 2070, 2071, 2072,
 2073, 2074, 2075, 2076, 2077,
 2078, 2079, 2080, 2081, 2082,
 2083, 2084, 2085, 2086, 2087,
 2088, 2089, 2090, 2091, 2092,
 2093, 2094, 2095, 2096, 2097,
 2098, 2099, 2100, 2101, 2102,
 2103, 2104, 2105, 2106, 2107,
 2108, 2109, 2110, 2111, 2112,
 2113, 2114, 2115, 2116, 2117,
 2118, 2119, 2120, 2121, 2122,
 2123, 2124, 2125, 2126, 2127,
 2128, 2129, 2130, 2131, 2132,
 2133, 2134, 2135, 2136, 2137,
 2138, 2139, 2140, 2141, 2142,
 2143, 2144, 2145, 2146, 2147,
 2148, 2149, 2150, 2151, 2152,
 2153, 2154, 2155, 2156, 2157,
 2158, 2159, 2160, 2161, 2162,
 2163, 2164, 2165, 2166, 2167,
 2168, 2169, 2170, 2171, 2172,
 2173, 2174, 2175, 2176, 2177,
 2178, 2179, 2180, 2181, 2182,
 2183, 2184, 2185, 2186, 2187,
 2188, 2189, 2190, 2191, 2192,
 2193, 2194, 2195, 2196, 2197,
 2198, 2199, 2200, 2201, 2202,
 2203, 2204, 2205, 2206, 2207,
 2208, 2209, 2210, 2211, 2212,
 2213, 2214, 2215, 2216, 2217,
 2218, 2219, 2220, 2221, 2222,
 2223, 2224, 2225, 2226, 2227,
 2228, 2229, 2230, 2231, 2232,
 2233, 2234, 2235, 2236, 2237,
 2238, 2239, 2240, 2241, 2242,
 2243, 2244, 2245, 2246, 2247,
 2248, 2249, 2250, 2251, 2252,
 2253, 2254, 2255, 2256, 2257,
 2258, 2259, 2260, 2261, 2262,
 2263, 2264, 2265, 2266, 2267,
 2268, 2269, 2270, 2271, 2272,
 2273, 2274, 2275, 2276, 2277,
 2278, 2279, 2280, 2281, 2282,
 2283, 2284, 2285, 2286, 2287,
 2288, 2289, 2290, 2291, 2292,
 2293, 2294, 2295, 2296, 2297,
 2298, 2299, 2300, 2301, 2302,
 2303, 2304, 2305, 2306, 2307,
 2308, 2309, 2310, 2311, 2312,
 2313, 2314, 2315, 2316, 2317,
 2318, 2319, 2320, 2321, 2322,
 2323, 2324, 2325, 2326, 2327,
 2328, 2329, 2330, 2331, 2332,
 2333, 2334, 2335, 2336, 2337,
 2338, 2339, 2340, 2341, 2342,
 2343, 2344, 2345, 2346, 2347,
 2348, 2349, 2350, 2351, 2352,
 2353, 2354, 2355, 2356, 2357,
 2358, 2359, 2360, 2361, 2362,
 2363, 2364, 2365, 2366, 2367,
 2368, 2369, 2370, 2371, 2372,
 2373, 2374, 2375, 2376, 2377,
 2378, 2379, 2380, 2381, 2382,
 2383, 2384, 2385, 2386, 2387,
 2388, 2389, 2390, 2391, 2392,
 2393, 2394, 2395, 2396, 2397,
 2398, 2399, 2400, 2401, 2402,
 2403, 2404, 2405, 2406, 2407,
 2408, 2409, 2410, 2411, 2412,
 2413, 2414, 2415, 2416, 2417,
 2418, 2419, 2420, 2421, 2422,
 2423, 2424, 2425, 2426, 2427,
 2428, 2429, 2430, 2431, 2432,
 2433, 2434, 2435, 2436, 2437,
 2438, 2439, 2440, 2441, 2442,
 2443, 2444, 2445, 2446, 2447,
 2448, 2449, 2450, 2451, 2452,
 2453, 2454, 2455, 2456, 2457,
 2458, 2459, 2460, 2461, 2462,
 2463, 2464, 2465, 2466, 2467,
 2468, 2469, 2470, 2471, 2472,
 2473, 24

2001 Delmona

TOR ENTS

A Plain Statement of Facts

THERE IS A REAL MONEY-MAKING PROPOSITION HERE FOR YOU

Davis Realty Development Co.
2d Floor 816 OLIVE ST. Olive 535

lot, 100x250; fine trees; price $500 cash and $35 per month interest. Manchester to Harry West of Webster; walk south to 8 WEBSTER GROVES TRUST CO. (c6)

GROVES-Admirable residence frontage; water, gas, sewer, electric; 100x250; fine trees; price $500 cash and $35 per month interest. Manchester to Harry West of Webster; walk south to 8 WEBSTER GROVES TRUST CO. (c6)

We were the first company in this city to realize the money making possibilities in the Garbage Motor Business.

for a home: one block from Lockport cars; owner leaving city; can be on attractive terms, price $7000.
Call Webster 1032. (c)

$4500
27 Marion ave., Webster Groves, a house, with all modern conveniences, lot 10x12, within 1 block of school. Call Webster 1032. (c)

SOUTH

Full 5-Room Bungalows

located right across from the loop, is where the woman will be made.

THOMAS E. KNOBELOCH
HARRY E. PRETTYMAN

ORIGINATORS AND LEADERS

North St. Louis. Forest Tract. (291)
 Modern 4-room brick; bath, elec-water heat, fireplace. 4235 Peck; show through. (61)

NAME BUNGALOW
 3 rooms, tile bath and front porch.

RESIDENCES FOR SALE

WEST

LOANS ON REAL ESTATE
 MONEY TO LOAN—City or country

electricity; new variant;
for sale. Call 222-1111.
MEMENAY 1 & R. E. CO., 1308 N. Grand av. Tel.
222-1111.

MEDIATE POSSESSION.
1000 sq. ft. 2-story bungalow.
collet, hot-water heat, electric ref.

RESIDENCE. Beautiful 10-room, 4145 Enright, 8-room house, 225 N. Second room house, 2 PARKS, 4215 Olive. Lindel 200-2222.

RESIDENCE. 128 Brussels at 2nd St.
1000 sq. ft. 2-story bungalow, decorated and painted throughout; vacant; ready to move in.
Call 222-1111.

STOCKS AND BONDS

STOCK. Will sell 50 shares Hunk
heat offer. Box R-2224. Post-Com.

STOCK. Must sell 50 shares Hunk
heat offer. Box R-2224. Post-Com.

DEPARTMENTS. FOR SALE

SOUTH

any will sell at a bargain. 3240-

3958 Westminster, 9 rooms. $6000
4023 Washington, 12 rooms. $1250
4164 Delmar, 9 rooms. $5000

family and garage, South St.
near Russell. Box A-14, P.D.
(24)

SEE LEE GRAND JONES
PAUL JONES REALTY CO.
4th Floor, Wainwright Bldg.
(24)

St. Louis
GIL STICKS—We buy and sell, on a cash basis, all makes of Cigars,
Fed. Res. Bk. Bldg. Central 2276.

LIBERTY BONDS
If you must either sell your Liberty bonds or borrow money on it, we will be glad to help you.

WEST
4 and 6 room modern flat, separate kitchen, bath, lights. Call LINDA at 861-1111. WEST
4 and 6 room modern flat, separate kitchen, bath, lights. Call LINDA at 861-1111.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

Perishing: 7 attractive rooms;
bath; modern; $11.50. (61)
H. J. KATTELMAN & CO.
839 Central National Bank Bldg.
Oliver 235. Long distance

STITS

... of the t

f Facts

T HEIGHTS Subdivision, venues, in the City of St.

your invariable custom, of-
and easy terms.

assertion, and its excep-fact that OVER 120 lots

MAKING YOU

future—within the year.
out in its entirety. Others
It IS SURELY WORTH
call at our office and let ment Co.

Olive 535
Central 537

Y ALONE

tion in the Subdivision business in this city to realize the plan of the General Motors District (GE ROAD). We have the one essential that is the ability to look every every one who has purchased price was right and our word

Y IS WHAT COUNTS.

AL PARK

e loop, is where the money

NOBELOCH PRETTYMAN and Leaders
ut Street.
Chestnut 2257.

LOANS ON REAL ESTATE
MONEY TO LOAN - City of county property
THEO. R. APPEL, International Life Ins. Co.

STOCKS AND BONDS

STOCK - Will sell 50 shares Turk Disks best offer. Box K-254, Post-Diamond, G.
OIL, STOCK - Must sell my Congregational oil stock. To, Box K-205, Post-Diamond, G.
STOCK - Texas Amalgamated, $1, Congregational, 7-6; Graves, $11. Box K-215, G.
STOCK - Must sell my Texas Amalgamated and Congregational Oil, Elgin, now, 100 shares.

STOCKS Wtd.—Highest prices paid, clothing, shoes and furnishings. Seidler, 363 Union St., La Jolla.

OIL, STOCKS—We buy and sell, let us know your wants. Dummerby & Davidson, 1117 Fed. Res. Bldg. Ridge Central 2276. —ack

LIBERTY BONDS

If you must either sell your Liberty Bonds or borrow money on it, we will be glad to accommodate you. We will loan you cash, pay you the highest price for your bonds, or we can buy them for you at $50 bond, or we will buy your bonds at market value.

FUNDRIERIAL LOAN CO. 714 Chestnut—tel

SEE US FIRST.

We buy and sell your listed or unlisted securities, market quotations and reports furnished on all issues; stocks bought outright.

retail balance or marginal. W. L. BEACH 10000, 10000, 10000, 10000, 10000, 10000 Office 6180, Central 1916.

Metropolitan 5c to 50c Stores

Common stock, all or any part of 10 shares for the best offer. Box A-248 Greenback.

We have on hand for sale

5, 10, 20 Mo-Tex Pipe Line.....	2.75
Long Green Oil.....	Chas
10000 Redding.....	1.00
10000 Turman Oil.....	1.00
10000 Remmies Oil.....	1.00
10000 Congressional Oil.....	1.00
10000 National Oil.....	1.00
10000 Harvey Crude.....	1.00
10000 M. M. and Stone.....	1.00
10000 International Mouse Machine.....	1.00
10000 Afterthought Copper.....	1.00

Tex. A. & P. common	74 1/2
Tex. A. & P. preferred	87 1/2
Commonwealth Finance common	54 1/2
Empire Tire and Rubber	50 1/2
Gen. Sec.	5 1/2
United Drilling	2 1/2
and many other stocks, tie our prices

H. J. NATTELMAN & CO.
 629 Central National Bank Bldg.
 Office 2255. Long distance 14-125

Bobby Wallace Ought to Be Favorite in That "Shortstop" Billiard Tourney

Webster Groves And Kenrick Win In State Tourney

Victor of Basketball Trophy Must Triumph Again This Afternoon and Tonight.

ST. LOUISANS STAGE RALLY

County Five and Local Champions Come From Behind to Defeat Opponents.

COLUMBIA, Mo., March 20.—After being outplayed and outscored in the first half, Kenrick High School of St. Louis nosed out Warrenburg 23 to 22 this morning. Marshall started for Warrenburg, while Steele and Rotermund played the same stellar game they showed last night. Warrenburg took an early lead in the first period, when Marshall and Hanna rang up field goals. Mortika tallied a field goal for Kenrick, and Steele followed with another. The score deadlocked 5 to 5, but Warrenburg took a narrow lead and held it to the end of the period, which ended 12 to 9 in favor of the teachers.

The score:

KENRICK				WARRENSBURG
Player	Goals	Fouls	Throws	Player	Goals	Fouls	Throws
Rotermund	1	1	2	Williams	1	1	2
Steele	1	1	2	Flaherty	1	1	2
Mortika	1	1	2	Lawrence	1	1	2
Billy	1	1	2	Marshall	1	1	2
Totals	5	5	10	Totals	5	5	10

Webster Groves High, also came from behind to defeat Columbia this morning 21 to 19. The victory puts Webster into the final of the division against Kansas City Northeast this afternoon.

The Webster victory was largely due to a continuance of a rally started by Cantwell in the first period. Two free throws by Lester, Columbia center, opened the scoring. A field goal by Cantwell's great work in a rally in the closing minutes of the period brought Webster into the lead for the first time with a 9 to 8 score.

Webster Groves, Goals, Fouls, Throws.

Player	Goals	Fouls	Throws
Thurston	1	1	2
Gaines	1	1	2
Lawrence	1	1	2
Cantwell	1	1	2
Phillips	1	1	2
Totals	5	5	10

Columbia, Goals, Fouls, Throws.

Player	Goals	Fouls	Throws
Lester	1	1	2
Everett	1	1	2
Totals	2	2	4

Clayton was defeated in the second round by Warrenburg.

UNIVERSITY CITY FIVE DEFEATED AT COLUMBIA

COLUMBIA, Mo., March 20.—University City High School lost its opening game in the State basketball tournament here yesterday afternoon, 28 to 14. Bellflower outplayed the St. Louis team from the start. Weber starred for the University City five and McClure, with three field goals, starred for Bellflower.

Klein Beats Wallace.
Klein easily took his game from Bobby Wallace, 130 to 42, in the handicap 13.5 ball game tournament now in progress at Peterson's. Klein made an unusual showing, going out in 13 innings with an average of 12 to 13 and not being credited with one strike.

Michigan Favored in Big Ten Meet

CHICAGO, March 20.—The well-balanced team of the University of Michigan today ruled a strong favorite to win the annual indoor track and field championships of the Western Conference at Patton gymnasium, Northwestern University, tonight. Illinois and Chicago, according to advance indications, are expected to fight it out for second and third places.

ED FITZSIMMONS STOPS BRIGHT IN FIRST ROUND

NEW YORK, March 20.—Eddie Dorsey, who claims the colored lightweight championship of America, after agreeing to box Eddie Fitzsimmons at the boxing carnival held in the Fourth Regiment Armory in Jersey City last night under the auspices of the North Hudson Federated Fists of the American Legion, evidently reconsidered, for when the time came for him to face the Morgan enter in the ring, he was conspicuous by his absence. Little Danny Bright, formerly of England, however, had no fear of the much heralded Fitzsimmons, and he gladly substituted for Dorsey.

Danny's courage and gameness were commendable but he proved no match for Fitzsimmons and Referee Britton showed excellent judgment in stopping the bout toward the end of the first round after Eddie had fully demonstrated that Danny had no chance with him.

Bobby Gleason, former amateur welterweight champion, started a boxing match with Jack Britton, present world's champion, but it miserably developed into a battle. Bobby, of Indianapolis, and Jack, of Chicago, in kind so that when the final bell clanged they were at it hot and heavy and the house was in an uproar. Britton was the winner on points.

The "Jimmy Austin" of the Cardinal Squad

WILLIAM "PICKLES" DILHOEFER

Burke Will Send Veteran Against Bronchos Today

Browns Face Busy Session on Road, With Only One Day of Rest Prior to Arrival Here.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 20.—Unless Johnnie Nee has worked a miracle in whipping his ball club into shape, the Browns today will hand the Bronchos another severe lacing. It will be recalled that a week ago the San Antonio team visited Taylor and played the American Leaguers two games, both resulting in top-heavy scores in the St. Louisans' favor. Burke's crowd will try to show they are superior to McGraw's Giants. The New Yorkers have been playing and beating Nee's outfit, but not by very large scores.

Manager Burke will use only his regulars at the start of the game this afternoon, as he is anxious for his team to get as much fielding practice as possible on a fairly good diamond. With the exception of next Monday, when the Browns return to Taylor for a few hours, the team will be constantly on the road playing ball games until they reach St. Louis.

Burke this morning said a veteran would be on the mound when the battle opens and that more than likely he would lead in a youngster to finish against the Bronchos. The two-day practice sessions now are a thing of the past until the first place in the two-team events at the American Bowling Congress this afternoon with a score of 1258.

The Horlicks of Racine, scoring 2323 pins, rolled into third place in the five-men events last night. They opened with a 979 game, scored 1044 in the second and 903 in the third. William Rusch, Chicago, went into fourth place in the individuals, with 673. He went into second position in the all-events, scoring 1863 in nine games. Krescher made a great start in his singles but could not maintain the pace.

C. Meyers and F. Elapman of Toledo hit for 1227 in the doubles, reaching sixth position. W. Nussen and W. Flick, Chicago, went into tenth place, with 1217.

The leaders are:
Five men: Brucks No. 1, Chicago, 3096; Fleming Furniture Co., Cleveland, 2947; Horlicks, Racine, 2923; Emrys Lunch, Chicago, 2922; Crystal Park, Canton, O., 2514.
Two men: J. Savari, A. Harmon, Chicago, 1258; O. Whitehead, S. Grubb, St. Louis, 1257; A. S. Muller, H. Mack, St. Louis, 1257; H. Shuman, D. Deck, St. Paul, 1251; M. Morgan, J. Hannan, Chicago, 1230.
Individuals: B. McGowan, Evansville, 688; R. Meyer, St. Louis, 682; A. Burdette, Chicago, 677; W. Rusch, Chicago, 676; C. Mathison, Chicago, 673.
All events: R. Meyer, St. Louis, 1865; F. Elapman, Toledo, 1863; W. Nussen, Chicago, 1860; P. Wolf, Chicago, 1849; R. McGowan, Evansville, 1829.

Girls' Basket Title Decided
Two more women's municipal basketball titles were established last night at the Mullaphy gymnasium. The Welltons were victors over the Recs five, 19 to 12, for the intermediate championship while the juniors went to the Glasgow. The Glasgows defeated Harney Heights, 19 to 6.

Missouri Valley Net Association Organized Here

Delegates Present From Clubs in Missouri, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska.

By Davison Obeas

Secretary St. Louis Tennis Association.

Delegates from tennis clubs in Missouri, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska met at the Racquet Club yesterday and formed a sectional association to be known as the Missouri Valley Tennis Association. This organization will soon become the governing body for tennis affairs in the Missouri Valley Section of the United States Lawn Tennis Association.

The meeting was called by C. Drummond Jones, who is the Missouri Valley Sectional delegate on the National executive committee, and only clubs holding direct membership in the National association were represented in the convention, which lasted all day yesterday. The following clubs were represented either by delegates or proxies: Triple A and St. Louis Country Clubs, St. Louis; Rockhill T. C., Kansas City Field Club and the Kansas City Athletic Club of Kansas City, Mo.; Sioux City Lawn Tennis Association, Sioux City, Iowa; Des Moines Golf and Tennis Club, and the Des Moines Golf and Country Club of Des Moines, Iowa.

Purpose of Association.

The general purpose of the Missouri Valley Association will be to promote and supervise organized tennis in Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri and such other territory as may be admitted. All tournaments in the section, other than local, will be sanctioned by this new sectional association, thus avoiding any conflict in dates. Inter-city and exhibition matches will also come under the supervision of the Missouri Valley body.

Kansas City Gets Tourney.

By unanimous vote the delegates awarded the 1920 Missouri Valley Tennis Tournament to the Kansas City Athletic Club and it will be held during the week commencing July 1, at Kansas City. The Triple A Club retains the right to the Central States championship and it will be held in the Missouri Valley section. At a later date the Missouri Valley section will be awarded. In addition to the Missouri Valley sectional doubles, the Kansas City Athletic Club will hold events for men in singles and for women in singles and doubles.

Officers for the year 1920 were elected as follows: President, H. Craven, Rockhill Tennis Club, Kansas City; first vice president, Roland M. Hoerr, Triple A Club, St. Louis; second vice president, H. R. Hull, Des Moines Golf and Country Club, Des Moines, Ia.; Secretary, Dix Teachers, Kansas City Athletic Club, Kansas City; Treasurer, C. Drummond Jones, St. Louis Country Club, St. Louis. The other six members of the executive committee will be selected from active tennis centers cities in the four states.

The association will ask for a charter from the United States Lawn Tennis Association and this matter will be discussed at a meeting of the National Executive Committee in New York on March 27. C. Drummond Jones will represent the Missouri Valley Tennis Association at this meeting.

Each of the four states in the organization will have a field secretary who will keep the general secretary in his State and will divide up the responsibility of government.

Red Sticks Win Title.

The Red Sticks annexed the women's hockey championship last night by defeating the Blue Clubs in the final game of the season at the Winter Garden. The score was 4 to 2. This victory gave the Sticks three victories out of four games.

Elkton Wins Dakota Title.

MICHELLE, March 20.—Elkton High School, playing in the tournament final at Huron, S. D., last night, won the State High School basketball championship by defeating Madison High School, 31 to 29, and will represent South Dakota at the interstate meet at Madison, Wis.

"Doc" Lund Re-Elected.

Dr. Harlow G. Lund, one of the pillars of Washington University athletics, was last night re-elected president of the medical staff of the Lutheran Hospital. Other officers named were: Dr. William Winter, vice president, and Dr. Charles L. Klenk, secretary-treasurer.

200 ATHLETICS WILL COMPETE AT COLISEUM

Entries for the Coliseum Athletic Carnival, which will be held next Saturday night, have been closed. After counting the entrance names for the various events, Redwood Aiken announced that 200 athletes would participate in the games. The large wooden track will be set up in the Coliseum, Friday, so that runners desiring to feel the boards may report at 4 p. m. of that day for workouts.

WOMAN SETS NEW RECORD IN PLUNGE FOR DISTANCE

DETROIT, Mich., March 20.—Charles G. Edwards, set a new record in the women's plunge for distance event in an exhibition swimming meet here last night with a plunge of 66 feet. The old record established a year ago by Miss Boyle, was 64 feet. That mark was also beaten by Miss Helen Nolan, Detroit, who finished second with 64 feet, 6 inches.

SPORTS SALAD

Those Sunday Suits.

O. H. Jimmy Austin, you'll look cute All dressed up in your Sunday suit— Upon 18 minutes you will cast a spell. When Jimmy on the field appears The fans will give three rousing cheers And in a chorus you will hear them yell.

CHORUS.

THERE he goes! There he goes! All dressed up in his Sunday clothes. What's the matter with Pepper Jim? He's all right, we are strong for him. There he goes! There he goes! All dressed up in his Sunday clothes.

W. H. Pepper Jim is all dressed up.

Like Astor's justly famous pup. No more we'll see old Pepper hit the dirt. On sliding he won't take a chance. For fear he'll soil his Sunday pants. Or get a flock of dust upon his shirt.

CHORUS.

THERE he goes! There he goes! All dressed up in his Sunday clothes. Watch old Jimmy throw out his chest! All tossed out in his Sunday best. There he goes! There he goes! All dressed up in his Sunday clothes.

TOO TRUE.

If Phil Ball's standard of neatness is maintained we take it the game will have to be called about every 10 minutes while they are running the vacuum cleaner over Jimmy Austin's Sunday clothes.

THAT'S THE DOCTRINE.

See where James Monroe of Maywood, Ill., is going to run for President. Probably on the theory that history repeats itself.

We take it that Madison will be solid for Monroe.

The guy who shot Chief O'Brien has confessed. But the identity of the bird that struck Billy Patterson is still shrouded in mystery.

The United States has recognized Ireland, but is still not on speaking terms with Germany.

Former Coach Drumm of Marquette College is wanted to coach France's Olympic track team. Must think Drumm is hard to beat.

We glean the following from one of our great metropolitan news papers: "Valley truly accepted 11 chances at first base without the semblance of a bobble." But the linotype didn't fare as well as Wally in the bobble column.

Old Johnny Coulton went clear over to France to get the fat knocked out of him. He must have thought the home punch had lost its kick.

Connie Mack's aggregation of cellar from the clubs and assumed different styles of ball players, including W. G.

Ivy Griffin is covering first base for the Athletics. Ivy may be green but he can cover the ground.

COREY WINS REFEREE'S DECISION OVER RAUBECK IN STAG A. C. FEATURE

Tom Corey of the Northwestern Turnverein gained Referee Heinemann's decision in his bout with Joe Raubeck, Stag Athletic Club, in the feature contest of the amateur boxing program at the Southern Athletic Club, last night. Heinemann's decision was given after the judges had been unable to come to an agreement.

Six bouts were on the program, the Stag entrants gaining victories in three of the A. packed house witnessed the program. The results were as follows:

120 pounds—Joe O'Hara, Stag, won from Jack Garner, Southern, but stepped in second round.

110 pounds—Mike Kramer, Southern, knocked out Joe Bader, Arrow, in the second round.

142 pounds—Tom Corey, Northwestern, won from Joe Raubeck, Stag, four rounds; referee's decision.

160 pounds—Walter Nuke, Stag, won from Bill Banahou, unattached, three rounds; referee's decision.

122 pounds—Earl Sparks, Stag, won from Ray Kleinhammer, Wagner, three rounds; referee's decision.

135 pounds—Leo Julius, Southern, stopped Richard Rivers, Wagner, in the first round.

Cardinals Take Fourth Straight From Athletics

Bill Doak and Artie Reinhart Show Effective Form on Hill for Rickeyites.

DONNA, Tex., March 20.—Although the Cardinals bagged the fourth successive game of the series from the Athletics in the game at Donna, Tex., yesterday, there was one play that greatly displeased Manager Branch Rickey. It happened in the third inning when Milton Stock hit what should have been a legitimate home run but was thrown out at the plate because of his failure to slide. Had Stock hit the dirt, he would have tallied easily and in the face of what happened before and afterwards, the club would have had the unusual distinction of having hit three successive home runs, as Heathcote clicked a four-base blow before Stock's drive, while Hornsby, following Stock at bat, also made the circuit.

The Cardinals were in the lead at the time, but that made no difference to Rickey. He told Stock in strong terms that he should have come in faster and "on the dirt."

"Why didn't you slide?" he asked MIT.

"I could have scored by sliding, but I probably would have cut Perkins' legs off," answered Stock.

"We are playing these games to win," commented Rickey. "If you had injured Perkins, of course, he would have felt sorry for him, but we want as many runs as possible and hereafter every slide."

Doak Shows Effective Form.

The real pleasing point of the day in the way of pitching, however, was the manner in which Bill Doak performed. It was Doak's first appearance in a game and he mowed the Athletics down as if it had been June. Doak permitted one run and three hits in four innings. The lone marker came on the lone pass he issued, a base hit and a sacrifice fly.

Bill used his spit ball and a good hook occasionally.

Today's game will be at Brownsville.

In fielding Heathcote's homer, George Burns stooped into a right field and turned an ankle. He was forced to retire from the game.

If the hot weather continues, Rickey will not be long in calling on Goodwin, Schupp and May to follow Doak's good example of yesterday. It will require much more Texas sun to put the veterans on edge.

CARDINALS' ATHLETICS.

St. Louis	At. Hs.	R.	E.	B.	W.	W.	W.	W.	W.
St. Louis	2	4	0	0	2	1	1	1	1
At. Hs.	13	12	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
R.	2	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
E.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
B.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
W.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
W.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
W.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
W.	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	13	12	1	1	1	1	1	1	1

The score: "Batted for Naylor in fifth."

"Batted for Perry in sixth."

Scores by innings:

Club	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Cardinals	0	1	2	2	0	0	0	0	0
Athletics	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

CITY WOMEN'S TENPIN TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD AT WASHINGTON ALLEYS

Entries for the Women's City Association bowling tournament will close next Friday night. This competition will be held on the Washington alleys, starting Monday, April 5. The five-women event will be rolled on that day, while the two following days will be devoted to the doubles and individuals.

Captains of teams or individuals may enter by submitting the entry fee and the names of the bowlers. The fee has been set at $2 for a five-woman team, $2 for doubles and $1 for an individual contestant. Entries should be sent to Mrs. M. Kelly, Jr., secretary of the association.

Mapel With Brush Club.

Rolla Mapel, the southpaw, obtained by the Browns last fall from the Joplin club of the Western league, has signed with the Brush (Colo.) team, according to reports received here.

ADVERTISEMENT

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 10c and 25c.

LOFTIS BROS. & CO. DIAMONDS—WATCHES CREDIT AT CUT PRICES

WRAV'S COLUMN

Our One-Man Boxing Commission.

POLICE COMMISSIONER THOMAS J. SHEEHAN, an ardent sportsman and a believer in clean boxing, has undertaken the task of poling the boxing game in this city. Not that there is anything notably new with local ring conditions. The pastime has been vastly improved in year, but the details of conducting it have not been altogether in favor of the $1.52 and $3 pay-as-they-enter boys.

Substitutions, weak matches, inability to seat spectators according to their coupons, failure to insist on weight-and-appearance forfeits, medical examinations and other details are the principal shortcomings at local clubs.

Sheehan intends to insist that the spectators at club here get all the they pay for; and that means every guarantee that he can enforce to obtain the best shows and seats for those who pay for them. As the game exists on surfeiture, and as the board has delegated Sheehan to oversee ring affairs here, this official is virtually a one-man boxing commission.

Sheehan has seen the light. He is off of his 15 months or so. But, strange to say, Martin manifests a queer opinion of the talents of George Cantwell and has been getting agitated with a view of putting a match with the European champion, when the fighter arrives in this country.

City Needs a Commission.

THE trouble with St. Louis has been the lack of a commission such as operates in Toledo. There, although members work without salary, the rulings of the body are supported by the Mayor—a member of the commission—and by the police, who see that the commission's orders are enforced.

If the police here will back up Sheehan, the promoters will do as told. The promoters have long been willing to look after the proper seating of spectators, but late arrivals have had many wrangles and disappointments. This was due to the fact that the promoters have not been able to have the illegal occupant of a seat ejected. If Sheehan can lend police aid, practically all local boxing troubles can be wiped out.

In the meantime the Toledo or Milwaukee plan of a three-man commission is needed. Sheehan can't look after everything. If Judge Hall, Seneca Taylor and Walter Orthwein, for example, could be persuaded to act as commissioners, with Sheehan furnishing police backing to carry out their recommendations, St. Louis might approach more nearly the Milwaukee ideal.

A Wrestling Freak.

A NEW wrestling phenomenon is coming up in Chicago and one Larry Lichtenstein is one of his boosters. So also is Ed Smith, who has refereed several of the world's championship mat events not to mention boxing contests for various titles. He is John Pesek, another Nebraska product.

"A great wrestler, one who will make his mark," Smith said. But Lichtenstein goes further.

"He'll beat Stecher for the title sure and that before many months have passed," Lichtenstein says. "He has wrestled Stecher already, and was beaten two out of three falls. The deciding one was obtained by luck and Stecher was a mighty happy man at the result. The men had wrestled off the mat and Pesek walked to the center and assumed what he thought was the same position he had off the mat. One of his seconds shouted something to him, and he rolled over on his side to answer. At this moment Stecher threw himself on Pesek and pinned him. It was easy to do, because Pesek was off guard. Referee Ed Smith said the fall was legal and that Stecher had won."

"Pesek is a freak. He wrestles entirely with his legs. In a match, his hands are on the mat and his legs do all the groping for holds, like the tentacles of an octopus. His ability with these

MAN, an ardent sportsman the task of polishing up anything native wrong been vastly improved this been altogether in favor of turned over and resigned only 24 years old and in will be champion within two."
his Oats.
ALLIED boxing champion wonderful title, and Bob ht do worse than rest his this basis, without stepping old for new honors in the ing a lot of half-baked and third-rate professional y championships is entire-matter than sinking the ak into the plexus of a rperit or a Jack Demp-ard to Dempsey. Martin e light. He is off of Jack the or so. But, strange to manifests a queer disree, talents of Georges Car-has been spreading propa view of getting into a the European champion.
ghter arrives in this coun-

This Boy, Bob.
Is green, compared to Car-who has come up
e hard school of long expe-georges began as a bantam aged 27, is in his prime as heavyweight. He won the championships in all classes
d to the top. The only ad-artin would enjoy over Car-uld be about 15 pounds in perhaps reach. Otherwis-man's experience should to handle Martin without mmedable in the Akron ever, that he is not afraid atch with so redoubtable
It also commends his hat he is unwilling to risk
nent with Dempsey.
world is still undecided
re is any considerable dif-ween Dempsey and Carat Martin's manager, Jim h, seems to have made up n this point—to the dis-of Georges.

Night's Fights
Gowen, Kansas City,
at Johnny Schilt, Los second round, at St. Je-Thorp, Kansas City, feree's decision over app. St. Louis, in 10-
at Kansas City.
Yman, New Orleans,
t Lev "Young" Angelo, eighth round, at Pater-erson outpointed Mem-in 10-round bout at III.

First ston
ter

OW? upper ner—
LER! plays except er

Natives of India joined with those of Ireland in monster St. Patrick's day parade in New York. It will be observed that the Indians wore native turbans.
—Underwood & Underwood

Wife and daughter of Attorney-General Mitchell Palmer watching head of family as he tries to forget his host of critics in a game of golf.
—Keystone View Co.

Handley Page, inventor of the giant British type of airplane which bears his name, photographed on his arrival in New York recently.
—Western Newspaper Union

William M. Williams, who will succeed Daniel C. Roper as Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Besides collecting billions in taxes, he will aid the Department of Justice in enforcing prohibition.
—Underwood & Underwood

Daughters of old Erin bore the Irish tricolor and the Stars and Stripes side by side in the St. Patrick's day parade in New York.
—Keystone View Co.

Rear Admiral Benson, retired, photographed at his desk after assuming his new duties as Chairman of U. S. Shipping Board.
—International

This young lady with the good-natured smile is the woman golf champion of the United States. She is Miss Alexa Stirling of Atlanta, Ga., and she is now preparing to enter the match soon to be held in Europe to decide the woman's championship of the world.
—Underwood & Underwood

One of four huge electric motors that will drive new U. S. battleship Maryland, which is ready for launching at Newport News. The motor generates 7000 horsepower and weighs 64 tons.
—Underwood & Underwood

A "beauty among beauties"—Parisian girl crowned "Queen of Queens" at a recent Paris festival.
—Western Newspaper Union

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH
Founded by JOSEPH PULITZER
Dec. 12, 1878.
Published by the Pulitzer Publishing Co., Twelfth and Olive Streets.

POST-DISPATCH CIRCULATION
Average for February, 1920:
Sunday 394,880
Daily and Sunday 218,353

THE POST-DISPATCH PLATFORM
I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent, never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.
JOSEPH PULITZER.
April 10, 1907.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Burns on the Bonus.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
In view of the number and nature of the letters which I have received from your city in regard to my reported testimony regarding the cash bonus before the House Ways and Means Committee on March 4, I am writing this letter asking that you give it as much prominence as was given to the other partially correct and very incomplete report.
Instead of a cash bonus to all ex-soldiers, I advocated that the billion and a half dollars, or whatever would be used for a cash bonus to all, be spent in giving aid and comfort to the wounded and disabled of the war, their families and the families of those who died in the service.
My position was and is that no man who is sound has a right to a cash bonus until the wounded, their families and the families of those who died in the service are not only provided for with a bare existence, but are provided with the comforts and everything necessary to make them happy.
I further advocated the extension of the work of the Federal Board for Vocational Training to give an education or training to those of the boys who came back and now want to do a different or better class of work.
In reply to the statement of Representative Fordner that something had to be done which included the whole 4,500,000 in the service, I said: "Give them a loan at a low rate of interest to enable them to build a home or go into business. Then only those who need help will take it."
In reply to the questions asked in anonymous letters from your city as to my service, what I do for a living and where anyone can "get" me, I will say that I was with the Fifty-seventh Artillery and participated in the battles of St. Mihiel and the Argonne, that I am a patent attorney at 214 Ouray Building, Washington, D. C., and still maintain that no well and able-bodied man has a right to a bonus until the wounded and disabled are comfortably provided for, for life.
The many threats against my life which I have received have not, nor will they, change my attitude in this matter.
WALTER W. BURNS.
Ex-Captain Artillery, U. S. A.

Editor and a Long Life.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
The account in your paper of the demonstration of pulling teeth, etc., at St. Louis University, by the use of "cotton process ether," is the greatest piece of news I have seen in many a day. Where dental operations can now be done without pain, I believe it will add years to the average human life, for so far as I can judge, not one human being, heretofore, has ever been willing to go into a dentist's office except in the very last extremity. CHARLES L. DEBRIDGE.

Tax Exemption for Soldiers.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
In place of giving all ex-service men a bonus, why not exempt them from paying income tax if they are earning $5000 a year or less? Those earning in excess of $5000 need no assistance from the Government. FIGHTER.

Our Bonded Indebtedness.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Wednesday's Post-Dispatch contained a letter signed "A. W. M." questioning a statement which I made in a speech, as to the present bonded indebtedness of the City of St. Louis. In reply, I wish to submit an exhibit prepared by the Controller's office, as of April 1, 1919. This report shows that the city's net bonded indebtedness at that time, within the meaning of the State Constitution, was $11,312,365. This did not include the waterworks debt, $5,624,000; the old county debt, $1,112,000, and the sinking fund cash and investment, $4,874,625—a total of $8,610,625. The exception of these three items, in figuring the limit of bonded indebtedness, is authorized by the Constitution.
At the same time, the authorized limit of indebtedness, 5 per cent on the 1918 assessed tax valuation, was $34,697,597. Subtracting from this the net bonded indebtedness within the meaning of the Constitution, $11,312,365, there remained $23,385,232, which was figured as the limit of the new bond issue. An increase in the assessed valuation, for the year 1919, made it possible to increase the latter figure to $24,000,000, the amount of the bond issue now proposed.
WILLIAM T. FINDLY.
Secretary to the Mayor.

The Landlord's Attitude.
To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Please allow me to answer a letter in your paper of today, signed "Another Victim." This letter states in its letter of a 35 per cent increase in his rent within the past year, and that his income has remained the same for the past three years. We don't know just what class of work this party does, but we do know that wages in general have gone up almost double in the last three years. It is certainly foolish for a man to believe that he can demand high wages and cheap rent.
LANDLORD.

BOND ELECTION AND WOMEN VOTERS

Election Commissioner Arnold directs attention to some of the embarrassments of holding an election on as important a matter as the $24,000,000 bond issue just when constitutional changes may introduce a numerous body of new voters.
His first point is that the legality of the ratification by West Virginia, Missouri and perhaps other states of the suffrage amendment will be attacked in the courts. An adverse decision in these cases would have serious effects on the bond election, assuming that 36 states should ratify in the meantime and women should be permitted to participate in the election.

Some of the possible effects of such a situation would be minimized by providing separate ballot boxes for men and women. Should a majority of the men vote "aye," the bond issue would be lawfully approved irrespective of what might be determined later as to the women's right to vote. To postpone the bond election indefinitely awaiting tedious litigation over ratification technicalities would mean the virtual abandonment of the bond project.

Mr. Arnold's second point is based on the uncertainties of the next few days. With 34 states having ratified, hope of obtaining the necessary 36 at an early date depends on the result in the states of Delaware and Washington, in which special sessions have been called for March 22. If they approve the proposed amendment promptly, the bond election on May 11 would be illegal if the women did not participate. The date of registration for the bond election is fixed for March 25, three days after these special sessions. If Delaware and Washington approve the amendment prior to March 25, women will be permitted to register. But supposing, says Mr. Arnold, the fight in one or both the states continues over a period of several days, resulting affirmatively prior to May 11. Then between March 25 and May 11 many thousands of qualified but unregistered new voters would be added to the electorate.

Mr. Arnold suggests a postponement of the bond election. That may not be necessary. If it is necessary, a postponement for merely a few days might suffice. Or the situation might be met by changing the date of registration or by appointing a new date for registering women voters only.

The help of the women on the bond issue will be welcomed. That their first exercise of civic rights in St. Louis should be a matter meaning so much for St. Louis progress as this bond question is indeed to be esteemed a great privilege and opportunity.

THE PROPOSED CHECK-ROOM TAX

A bill has been introduced in the Board of Aldermen, providing a license fee of $25 a year for restaurant and hotel checkrooms, together with a 5-per-cent tax of the gross receipts. It is estimated this measure will yield an annual revenue of $20,000.

Such a proposition would once have met with unanimous approval. It is doubtful if it does now. The public is beginning to suspect that the other fellow does not pay a tax. It is immaterial what the other fellow's name is. It may be Check Room, or Income, or Excess Profits. Whatever its name, it slips out from under. There is only one taxpayer in the vale, Mr. Ultimate Consumer.

Mr. Ultimate Consumer will pay this checkroom tax. The restaurateur or hotel proprietor, directly this tax is levied, will proceed to reimburse himself. There is only one way to do it. The patron must pay. Looked at in this light the latest aldermanic revenue measure will not be received effectively.

It may be argued that if this objection lies against the proposed tax it lies against every other tax. That is true. The conclusion is sound also that, if it were practicable, all taxes should be abolished. Unfortunately, it is not practicable. The operation of Government requires money and the only legitimate means of getting the money is taxes. But if Thomas Jefferson were alive today he would probably change his aphorism to read that that people is best governed which is least taxed.

MILNER'S PROPOSALS FOR EGYPT.

To those who consider Great Britain impervious to criticism in respect of her imperial policies it will come as a pleasant surprise to learn that Lord Milner, returning from a special mission to Egypt, announces in advance his recommendations for the abolishment of the British protectorate, proclaimed during the war, and for the establishment of home rule. He proposes an autonomous government, with the substitution of Egyptian for British officials, Great Britain, however, to retain control of finances and of the Suez Canal.

In the light of Europe's experience with Egypt there is much to be said in favor of such restraining hand upon Egyptian finances; for Egypt's reckless financial operations of the past are largely responsible for the political plight in which she finds herself today. Egypt became conscious of her borrowing power in 1862, when she made her first foreign loan. From that time on the debt steadily mounted until 1880, when Egypt confessed bankruptcy. In the midst of the profligacy, in 1875, the shrewd Disraeli was able to purchase for England the shares of the Khedive in the Suez Canal at $12 per share. They are now worth approximately $1000, with none belonging to the British Government for sale.

It was these financial involvements that prompted the expeditions of the French and British to Egypt in 1882, from which the British have never retired, in spite of the announcement that the occupation had only a temporary object. Under the guidance of the British, however, although Egypt suffered a setback in the prospect of liberty, she has attained financial stability. Her foreign obligations today are approximately $250,000,000, in the form of a unified debt arranged under the supervision of the Great Powers. It is proper, therefore, that interested Governments, that have redeemed Egypt from bankruptcy by international action, should have something to say in the protection of their interests, at least, until the debt is discharged.

The proposals of Lord Milner, if accepted, will re-

EDITORIAL SPARKS.
"Lord Grey's Sight Saved by a Dentist." Evidently it was his eye teeth that were affected.—Philadelphia Record.

Paris report of a French lawyer's suggestion to tax tourists makes an effort to make them feel at home.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

With Gov. Edwards' wet plank and Col. Bryan's wet blanket, the San Francisco convention may find it a little hard to set the country on fire.—Arkansas Democrat.

"Dairymen in Watertown region face ruin," says the New York Tribune. Why dairy in a region with a name that's enough to ruin a dairymen?—Louisville Courier-Journal.

store Egypt to a larger autonomy than she enjoyed before the war, and while a certain right of intervention will probably be reserved to England, the suzerainty of Turkey is eliminated. It cannot be expected that England will ever permit foreign obstruction of the road to India by yielding control of the Suez Canal.

HIGH FARES AND EFFICIENCY.

The hearing before the Public Service Commission in which city officials resisted the application of the United Railways for a continuance of 8-cent fares ended with the introduction into the record of the Post-Dispatch's comparison of operating results on the traction lines of St. Louis and Philadelphia.

It is a comparison which the commissioners may study with profit. It does not embody mere possibilities, theories, suppositions. It embodies actual achievements. In months subsequent to the period covered by the Post-Dispatch figures, months during which the United Railways had the benefit of 8-cent fares, while the Philadelphia fares remained at the old rate of 5 cents, the disparity in results is even more striking.

In the formulation of its permanent policy in dealing with all traction utilities in the State, perhaps the commissioners could not do better than to make a first-hand investigation of the methods employed in the Eastern city.

City Engineer C. E. Smith predicted at the hearing that a proper management of the local properties would bring back 5-cent fares within a year. Whether that is true or not, a matter for the commissioners to determine is how far ease in obtaining increased utility charges tends to the encouragement of inefficiency. What incentive is there for improved methods when utility managers can take before the commission a showing chiefly remarkable as a record of inefficiency and waste and on such a showing obtain authorization for increased rates?

Are showings of the sort to be accepted as prima facie evidence that the application should be complacently granted without further inquiry? Is not the first duty to find out why the showing is unsatisfactory? To reduce fares in the face of such a showing might be a spur to efficiency in management.

THE SENIOR OF ALL ST. LOUISANS.

Mrs. Miriam S. Banister, who became 103 years old during the past week, arrived in St. Louis in 1864. Prior to that time she had spent several years up State. Her great age is, accordingly, a special tribute to the pleasant Missouri conditions shown in a multitude of other cases to be highly favorable to human existence. The quality of Missouri products generally have high recognition, but its men and women of sturdiness and persistent hold on life are the product entitled to greatest celebrity. Fifty-four of Mrs. Banister's 103 years having been passed in St. Louis, surely a word is also to be spoken for the city environment. These 64 years which she added while here to her prior 49 years must have shared the experiences common to all St. Louisans, must have been lived fully and vividly. It is a mistake to assume that only the eventless careers of nondescript localities, remote from the centers of population can make proud exhibits of age records, albeit records in which almost everything else has been sacrificed to longevity.

When asked to give another sitting for a birthday picture next year, Mrs. Banister said she would not then be alive. Why should she not be alive? Hers is still a life of usefulness in household duties. If she has reached the top of the hill and begun the descent, we hope to extend her the Post-Dispatch's congratulations at not one but many milestones on the other side. To be the oldest St. Louisian is, indeed, a worthwhile distinction. Why surrender it?

Representative Kitchen says the present revenue laws are working satisfactorily, but persons of ardent character will prefer to follow that daring, if somewhat visionary, reformer, Mr. McInimsey, who temerarily declares that "our systems of taxation, wherever they can be scientifically and equitably revised, should be so revised."

REMISSION OF WAR DEBTS.

Admiral Fisher has written a letter to the London Times strongly urging the remission of war debts owed by one Government to another or others. The subject seems to have a strange fascination for European residents. Discussion of it ebbs after the representative of some debtor Government declares occasionally that the sums due will be regarded as a particularly sacred obligation, to be repaid at the very moment conditions permit, but it always returns in ever mounting tides. A view incessantly emphasized is that these debts are a part of a common effort and that to enforce payment is to exact a charge on the debtor nations for their sacrifices in other directions.

This is a view the Admiral elaborates. The British Government, he says, would lose more than any other nation by remission, but he urges it as a duty. England should be generous toward the former comrades who owe it money, he declares. But the British would not lose more than any other creditor nation. A recent statement showed that its loans, aside from those to British dependencies, total a little more than eight billions of dollars, while the loans made by the United States total a little less than ten billions. And a wiping clean of the slate would free the British of any obligation to repay nearly four billions and a half owed to us, making their net loss by remission only about four billions, some of which it has no hope of ever regaining.

The British Government's status as to remission is generally much different from ours. That Government controls a territory as large as the United States as a result of the war, from which we made no material gains. It could well afford to forgive debts balanced by such enormous assets of another sort. Yet there is a ground of right and reason in the argument. The money was expended for war purposes. An equalizing of sacrifices might be accomplished.

BACK TO THE FARM.

HOLD ON IT!
ALL ONE YOU
SITTY FIVE
SITTY FIVE
—HOLMES—
"Well, to tell de truf, Rastus, we's kin' o' short on help up here."—Forbes Magazine.
"But, Sam, how is it with you yonder?"
"Mah goodness! We has to get up at fo' o'clock in de mawnin' an' gathah in de stahs; den we has to haul in de moon and hang out de sun. Den we has ter roll de clouds around 'all day long."
"But, Sam, how come it y' has ter work so hard?"
"Well, to tell de truf, Rastus, we's kin' o' short on help up here."—Forbes Magazine.
New Name, Old Disease.
Two girls were quarreling.
"Oh," said one, "I'm sick of you! I believe you can't help it, though. You've got a chauffeur's tongue!"
"What?" cried the other girl, scared. "Is it catching? How does one get it?"
"Oh," said the other, pointedly, "through constantly running people down."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

COMMUNICATING WITH MARS.

JUST A MINUTE

Written for the POST-DISPATCH
by Clark McDanns

Maybe what has happened in the Senate will teach us something. If it does, good can come out of a very unexpected quarter. We shall have to learn that a Government divided against itself politically cannot function. Whether Mr. Wilson did or did not want to save the apostrophe, or to preserve a standard of spelling—possibly that of the dictionary. Probably we can get at it a little better by looking into a community like San Antonio, Tex., where nobody is fighting to save anything. Sign Hunter 177776461 calls our attention to the following dishes upon a San Antonio bill of fare:

Lucky Strike Cigarettes
Regular Price 15c
Today 2 for 35c

The psychology of profiteering, I call it. Eh, what? 738290863456.
Maybe to say it oddly is to make it more effective. For instance, in a local garage:

Kindly keep out of all closed cars with greasy clothes.

Some of us may not think it important to save the apostrophe, or to preserve a standard system of spelling—possibly that of the dictionary. Probably we can get at it a little better by looking into a community like San Antonio, Tex., where nobody is fighting to save anything. Sign Hunter 177776461 calls our attention to the following dishes upon a San Antonio bill of fare:

Lyonese Potatoes 10c
Deveiled Aggs 15c
French Pastry 10c
Angle Food Cake 10c
Combination Salad 10c

Our sign hunter says this sort of thing has gone on until some menus at the average eating house in the Southwest have become to the average traveler almost as mysterious as an Assyrian tablet. He says one almost has to take a translator along.

Nor is any more attention being paid to those little niceties of civilization in Houston. A want ad from the Houston Chronicle:

WANTED—Second hand mens' clothes

There is no such thing in a democracy. All men in a democracy are first hand men—or were until Mr. Palmer began his campaign to sift the bad from the good. So that implies a misconception, with apostrophic ornamentation.

There is an expressman in St. Louis who displays this sign:

Express Hailing

Why not get the celebrated Hall Room boys to take up teaching in our schools.

6427890864568908745.

Sign on Fourth street:

Chickens and Rabbits

Inside

Never mind. Spring is coming and we can all get out.

A Case of Identity.

Just south of Port Royal, S. C., the "inland" route presents great difficulties to the Florida-seeking yacht owner from the North. Sticky mud flats and shifting sandbars, raising their tops to within a few inches of the surface of the water, restrict navigation to narrow, winding channels, known only to the initiated.

One yacht skipper hired an old negro boatman to "take him through" after having been earnestly assured by the old man that he "knew every bank in de creek." For a few minutes all went well; then the little yacht slid gently up the slope of a submerged bar—and stayed there.

"You're a devil of a pilot!" stormed the skipper. "I thought you knew every bank in the creek."
"So I does, boss; so I does," was the complacent reply. "Dis is one ob dem now."—Harper's Magazine.

The MIRROR of PUBLIC OPINION

This column is designed to reproduce without bias the latest comment by the leading publicists, newspapers and periodicals on the questions of the day.

WHY CHAMP CLARK IS NOT A SENATOR.

CHAMP CLARK'S refusal to be a candidate for the United States Senate is based upon a reason certain to command public approval. "There is a House habit with which I am thoroughly acquainted," he says, "and a Senate habit with which I am not familiar; I prefer the House."

The former Speaker is familiar enough with the Senate habit, and so are the people. From the first that habit has been an affection of exclusiveness if not of aristocracy. It has built up under the pleasing guise of courtesy and on the assumption that a Senator is always a considerate and patriotic gentleman, some of the most obstinate partisan or without excuse and of a thousand pretenses, personal or hereditary, calculated to interfere with the public business, as common in the Senate, are impossible in the House. Timid or headstrong, wasteful or saving, fiercely partisan or benignly harmonious, passionate or meditative, the House is at least representative of a progressive people, and, like them, it usually does business.

A member of the House in 13 Congresses and Speaker in four of them, a translation to the Senate would be for Champ Clark a retirement from open political warfare in favor of a highly specialized form of political bushwhacking.

THE SECRETARY ABOUT COLBY.

From the Springfield Republican.
IT looked queer to have Gen. Churchill of the Military Intelligence Division of the army before the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate, with an armful of secret records, testifying mysteriously concerning Bainbridge Colby, nominated to be Secretary of State. Everybody asks "What have they got on Colby? Is he a Bolshevik?" They have them on Colby. Did he speak disrespectfully on some occasion of Great Britain? It cannot be that he ever beat his grandmother for the army secret service would not have been interested in that. Popular sympathy for Mr. Colby will develop if the Senate Committee in camera proceeds in this style to arouse suspicions against him. Let us have the truth and publish it.

KOREA AND JAPAN.

From the New Republic.
WHY Korea hates Japan: First, because the promised Japanese reforms have not yet materialized. Second, because the Koreans are unshakably convinced they never will materialize. Third, and most important, because the Koreans have been embittered beyond possibility of reconciliation by the ruthlessness with which the Japanese crushed their revolt; the atrocities of the troops during the demonstrations, the torturing of thousands of prisoners and suspects after the demonstrations—all of which, it should be said, is no longer disputed even by the Japanese. The Koreans are moved now by only one impulse—a hate so universal and intense and unreasoning as to be awesome; race hatred in its most extreme and dangerous form.

Fourth I
THE three pounced cross-questioned him
of hauling to mill,
to drive hardwood, the drying, the marketability respective utilities of be Every question Wally tion, as he was able to answered with a snap room to doubt that big about.
"You fellows think when you're cut off money's still growing
"What would you do mine?" Tate asked.
"Kik to hardwork."
ters to haul. It might diespin machines to stuff. Robbins have out your low grades come off the saw. W
you ought to see a h off a mill the size of "A hundred thousan better than $75,000
"Hardwood's a bette
"Damned if you ar
cuss," said Miner. "I
"Nobody," and I'll
you won't repeat it ou
"How much do you r
"Enough," Wally sa armed his words of an agreeable.
"Wouldn't y like m
"Not till my vacation

Men Like
In Wome
Why S

Miss Helen P. M
in New York. to Tram W

Here are 15 rea
Miss Helen P. McC
York. Miss McC
2000 unhappily mar
1. Every husban on the wife's part
"finis" after an eve
2. Be reasonable masculine and the
3. A wife must Few men fight thro
for the whip and t
4. Realize that the most of it.
5. Every wife s
No husband can newspaper and cur
7. Every wife s age wife knew how could hold her hus
8. Never let a
9. A wife must marry of the fam
Perhaps her trials
10. She must n home. This turns other complaint.
11. A wife must personal liberty. M
I married I was los 12. Do not sit
every evening.
13. A wife mus
b'read her table an 14. Every succe not a path of roses of business.
15. Always try home. Man is the

MISS HELEN P.
York, declares t
Because there are be aware of them she hated.

There are scores son why their husband 15 reasons for men di has listened to the p
and she, if any one, c
In a current issue of jet in an article entit
"But in many cases
matter of THINK, an Miss McCormick, as Name McCormick, w in her copy little Cernick, young, viv ready to pour forth side of life she so c stands.
"Of course, it is o
many cases," she re
"Most every man is love with his wife as died her, but ridiculo stances, unheard of li arise, repeating the daily life until the does think he detest
he keeps on thinki enough—well, it re
fact this "think" gro fact—he actually do
"Of course I do r
ONLY reasons or eve for men turning fro to listless lovers or tastors," laughed M
"But as I have liste
other complaint the foremost. And it do school is badly nee women for the most of life. We have s everything under the
as avarice to sellin threat, but I never b to learn how to be
"There is no doub
a school, especiall could furnish hints say and what NOT how can we ed
to be just the type will appreciate? For

YOU CAN'T TELL TILL YOU TRY

by Clarence Budington Kelland

ILLUSTRATED BY HERBERT MORTON STOOFS

Fourth Installment.

HE three pounced upon him, questioned him, cross-questioned him. They went into details of hauling to mill, the drawback of inability to drive hardwood, the problems of sawing and the marketability of low grades, and the respective utilities of beech and birch and maple. Every question Wally answered without hesitation, as he was able to do out of his experience, answered with a snap and a certainty that left no room to doubt that he knew what he was talking about.

"You fellows think you've skinned the cream when you've cut off your spruce. The real money's still growing on the land."

"What would you do with 300,000 acres like mine?" Tate asked.

"Right to hardwood. Buy three caterpillar tractors to haul. It might pay to put in, say, eight chainsaw machines to use up your low grade stuff. Robbins have a good market, too. Pile your low grades through slashers as they come off the saw. Wally, the right man in charge you ought to see a hundred thousand in profits off a mill the size of the one you describe."

"A hundred thousand? That mill never did better than $75,000 of spruce."

"Hardwood's a better game," said Wally.

"Darned if you aren't a convincing young man," said Miner. "Who you tied up to?"

"Nobody, and I'll tell you something else if you won't repeat it outside. I'm not going to be."

"How much do you make a year?" Tate asked.

"Enough," Wally said with a smile that dismissed his words of any appearance of the disagreeable.

"Wouldn't you like more than enough?"

"Not till my vacation's over, anyhow. I must be getting along. Hope you got your money's worth," he said with a twinkle. "Only decent thing is for me to use that $25 to buy you a lunch. When shall it be?" Wally said it as if he were used to buying $25 lunches daily.

"But listen here, young man."

"Got to meet my wife, and I never let anything interfere with an engagement with Mrs. Seymour. Suppose you lunch with me the day after tomorrow."

"Done," said Tate.

Wally withdrew and the three old heads sat looking at each other.

"Where'd he come from?" Miner asked.

"Darned if I know," Tate said. "His name's mighty familiar. As soon as he mentioned it I knew who he was, but for the life of me I can't remember the name of anything about him."

"Anyhow, he's there," said Wiggins. "He's a kid, but he knows the lumber business. Wonder how much it would take to capture him."

"Hands off. He's my meat. I discovered him," said Tate.

"It's open season," Miner said. "I'd like to have that young man—him—and I'm going after him. I issue warning."

"I want him to take over that Maine property. He's just the man for it," Tate said firmly.

"The best man gets him," said Wiggins. "A dinner I eat you both to him."

"Done," they said in chorus, and went out of the club together.

That evening shortly after 6 the telephone rang in Seymour's room, and Ruth answered.

"The clerk says a Mr. Wiggins to see you," she said jubilantly.

"Send him up," said Wally, with a great pretense of pomposity, and three minutes later Mr.

Wiggins was being presented to Mrs. Seymour.

"I came to talk business to your husband," he said. "Hope you don't mind."

"If you can get him to talk business," she said, and laughed.

"I'm going to. Young man," he said, turning to Wally. "I need you in my business. What are your terms?"

"Guess I didn't make myself plain at lunch," Wally said pleasantly. And the telephone rang again. Again Ruth answered.

"Mr. Tate," she said.

"Confound Tate!" said Wiggins.

"Tell him to come up," said Wally, and presently Mr. Tate made his appearance, scowled at Wiggins with pretended malevolence. "Trying to steal a march on me, eh? Now clear out. Wiggins, I want to talk business to this young man."

"That's exactly what I have come to do," said Miner.

"But I don't want any job," Wally said with humorous despair.

"Every man wants a job if the right one comes along," said Mr. Tate.

"Why don't you let them tell you about it?" Ruth said, as if she were a bit embarrassed by Wally's attitude. "It can't do any harm. And I've always said you could do better by taking

"I'm talking business to him."

"I've come to offer you a job," said Mr. Tate.

"Declined with thanks," said Wally, whose head was whirling, but who was held steadfast by Ruth's compelling eyes. And the telephone rang the third time. It was Miner.

"Don't tell me you've come to offer me a job, too," Wally said as he shook hands.

"That's exactly what I have come to do," said Miner.

"But I don't want any job," Wally said with humorous despair.

"Every man wants a job if the right one comes along," said Mr. Tate.

"Why don't you let them tell you about it?" Ruth said, as if she were a bit embarrassed by Wally's attitude. "It can't do any harm. And I've always said you could do better by taking

"That's exactly what I have come to do," said Miner.

"But I don't want any job," Wally said with humorous despair.

"Every man wants a job if the right one comes along," said Mr. Tate.

"Why don't you let them tell you about it?" Ruth said, as if she were a bit embarrassed by Wally's attitude. "It can't do any harm. And I've always said you could do better by taking

"That's exactly what I have come to do," said Miner.

"But I don't want any job," Wally said with humorous despair.

"Every man wants a job if the right one comes along," said Mr. Tate.

"Why don't you let them tell you about it?" Ruth said, as if she were a bit embarrassed by Wally's attitude. "It can't do any harm. And I've always said you could do better by taking

"That's exactly what I have come to do," said Miner.

"But I don't want any job," Wally said with humorous despair.

"Every man wants a job if the right one comes along," said Mr. Tate.

"Why don't you let them tell you about it?" Ruth said, as if she were a bit embarrassed by Wally's attitude. "It can't do any harm. And I've always said you could do better by taking

COMMENCING TOMORROW in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH

and continuing Monday and Tuesday

"IDENTIFIED"

BY RICHARD WASHBURN CHILD

This will be the third story in the series of two stories a week by the fiction headliners of today. Beginning in the Sunday, continuing in the daily

POST-DISPATCH

Men Like a Little "Vamp" In Women; Fifteen Reasons Why Some Wives Are Failures

Miss Helen P. McCormick, Assistant District Attorney in New York, Is in Favor of Establishing a School to Train Wives in the Way They Should Go.

Here are 15 reasons why men dislike their wives, compiled by Miss Helen P. McCormick, an Assistant District Attorney in New York. Miss McCormick has listened to the complaints of more than 2000 unhappy married couples:

1. Every husband detests pettiness. Repetition of an argument on the wife's part amounts to pettiness and nagging. Learn to write "fins" after an event.
2. Be reasonable and realize there are two sides to a story, the masculine and the feminine.
3. A wife must not acquire the authority of being a driver. Few men fight their driver, but all of them nurse a growing distaste for the whip and the holder of it.
4. Realize that being a wife is a job in itself, and try to make the most of it.
5. Every wife must learn to enjoy her housekeeping.
6. No husband can constantly admire a wife who neglects the newspaper and current events for novels and movie reels.
7. Every wife should cultivate a sense of humor. If the average wife knew how to laugh as well as she knows how to weep she could hold her husband's affection much better.
8. Never let a man think you are wasting his money.
9. A wife must not be selfish. She usually thinks she is the martyr of the family and that her husband's work is just play. Perhaps her trials are not as heavy as his.
10. She must not pour out all her woes the moment he arrives home. This means a man's warm heart to steel quicker than any other complaint.
11. A wife must not make a man feel that he is giving up his personal liberty. Many male spouses cry, "I had no idea that when I married I was losing all right to myself or my possessions."
12. Do not insist on dragging the tired man out from home every evening.
13. A wife must be just as careful about her appearance at the breakfast table as at the dinner table.
14. Every successful wife knows that marriage is a struggle, not a path of roses and you have to work to win just as in any line of business.
15. Always try to make your husband comfortable in his own home. Man is the most comfort-loving animal on the globe.

By FAY STEVENSON.

MISS HELEN P. MCCORMICK, an Assistant District Attorney in New York, declares there are 15 reasons for men disliking their wives. Because there are so many reasons and because so few women seem to be aware of them she favors a training school to teach wives how not to be hated.

There are scores of wives who would be glad to know of just ONE reason why their husbands seem to dislike them, but Miss McCormick can name 15 reasons for men disliking their wives right off the reel. Miss McCormick has listened to the complaints of no less than 2000 unhappy married couples, and she, if any one, knows the truth, in fact the whole truth, of matrimony. In a current issue of a popular magazine she gives her opinions on this subject in an article entitled, "Why Men Dislike Their Wives."

"But in many cases it is only a matter of THINK, isn't it?" I asked Miss McCormick, as I sat opposite her in her cozy little office with her name written in large gilt letters over the glass door. Two jars of spring jonquils growing in water and a feminine aid to her desk, but I gave my full attention to Miss McCormick, young, vivacious, her lips ready to pour forth knowledge of a life she so clearly understands.

"Of course, it is only 'think' in many cases," she readily agreed. "Most every man is just as much in love with his wife as the day he married her, but ridiculous little circumstances, unheard of little differences, repeating themselves in the daily life until the husband really does think he detests his wife, and if he keeps on thinking that long enough—well, it really does seem that 'think' grows into a real thing."

"Of course I do not pretend to assert that my 15 reasons are the ONLY reasons or even the main ones for men turning from ardent lovers to listless lovers or even ardent detesters," laughed Miss McCormick. "But I have listened to complaints from almost every woman I know, and it does seem that a school is badly needed to train women for the most important job of life. We have schools to teach every child under the sun, from being an aviator to selling a spool of thread, but I never heard of a school to learn how to be a wife."

"There is no doubt we need such a school, especially a school which would furnish hints on WHAT to say and what NOT to say," said I. "But how can we educate a woman to be just the type of wife a man will appreciate? For instance, there

The Weekly Health Talk

By DR. G. A. JORDAN, Assistant City Health Commissioner.

TEACHERS should ever bear in mind that the impulsive and over-enthusiastic activity of a number of so-called flippant children are but symptoms of mental fatigue.

Normal children are active, impulsive, and inquisitive. This is nature's method of education, and children, therefore, should be allowed to exercise these mental traits. Rigid discipline tends to curb natural activities which then seek outlets in other more or less roundabout ways.

For example, too rigid discipline tends to cause the harboring of resentment against and disregard for the teacher in authority. When once discipline is relaxed, the child has fallen to learn to control his impulses, frequently finds himself in difficult and compromising situations.

Disciplinary measures should follow the form of substituting desirable activities for undesirable ones. To do this effectively, the teacher, besides having an understanding of personality, should be able, by the exercise of tact and judgment, to secure attention and discipline without apparent effort and without the knowledge of the child. This is especially important when the impulsiveness and activity of the child are so marked as to attract attention.

Children normally concentrate on the thing at hand, but under the artificial restraints of school life they may lose the ability and desire to do this and become unstable in the direction of their activities. The evidence of fatigue must be watched for and prevented by assigning short tasks to be completed and these followed by short periods of relaxation. The tasks should be gradually lengthened, commensurate with the development of the child, and made more difficult, otherwise the changing activities symptomatic of fatigue will become crystallized into an unstable personality characterized by faulty thought and aimless purpose.

In other words, the natural concentration exhibited by the child should be encouraged and his normal activities should be wisely directed toward useful ends.

A child who has already developed a faulty habit in this respect should be trained so as to be less easily distracted and his natural ability to concentrate should be strengthened by directing his energies along productive lines. Failure to do this will allow the habit to become fixed because of the unconscious tendency of such a child to find an outlet for his excessive energy along the path of least resistance. This leads to an inability to adjust himself to the normal routine of life in later years.

Children normally concentrate on the thing at hand, but under the artificial restraints of school life they may lose the ability and desire to do this and become unstable in the direction of their activities. The evidence of fatigue must be watched for and prevented by assigning short tasks to be completed and these followed by short periods of relaxation. The tasks should be gradually lengthened, commensurate with the development of the child, and made more difficult, otherwise the changing activities symptomatic of fatigue will become crystallized into an unstable personality characterized by faulty thought and aimless purpose.

In other words, the natural concentration exhibited by the child should be encouraged and his normal activities should be wisely directed toward useful ends.

A child who has already developed a faulty habit in this respect should be trained so as to be less easily distracted and his natural ability to concentrate should be strengthened by directing his energies along productive lines. Failure to do this will allow the habit to become fixed because of the unconscious tendency of such a child to find an outlet for his excessive energy along the path of least resistance. This leads to an inability to adjust himself to the normal routine of life in later years.

Children normally concentrate on the thing at hand, but under the artificial restraints of school life they may lose the ability and desire to do this and become unstable in the direction of their activities. The evidence of fatigue must be watched for and prevented by assigning short tasks to be completed and these followed by short periods of relaxation. The tasks should be gradually lengthened, commensurate with the development of the child, and made more difficult, otherwise the changing activities symptomatic of fatigue will become crystallized into an unstable personality characterized by faulty thought and aimless purpose.

In other words, the natural concentration exhibited by the child should be encouraged and his normal activities should be wisely directed toward useful ends.

A child who has already developed a faulty habit in this respect should be trained so as to be less easily distracted and his natural ability to concentrate should be strengthened by directing his energies along productive lines. Failure to do this will allow the habit to become fixed because of the unconscious tendency of such a child to find an outlet for his excessive energy along the path of least resistance. This leads to an inability to adjust himself to the normal routine of life in later years.

Children normally concentrate on the thing at hand, but under the artificial restraints of school life they may lose the ability and desire to do this and become unstable in the direction of their activities. The evidence of fatigue must be watched for and prevented by assigning short tasks to be completed and these followed by short periods of relaxation. The tasks should be gradually lengthened, commensurate with the development of the child, and made more difficult, otherwise the changing activities symptomatic of fatigue will become crystallized into an unstable personality characterized by faulty thought and aimless purpose.

In other words, the natural concentration exhibited by the child should be encouraged and his normal activities should be wisely directed toward useful ends.

A child who has already developed a faulty habit in this respect should be trained so as to be less easily distracted and his natural ability to concentrate should be strengthened by directing his energies along productive lines. Failure to do this will allow the habit to become fixed because of the unconscious tendency of such a child to find an outlet for his excessive energy along the path of least resistance. This leads to an inability to adjust himself to the normal routine of life in later years.

Children normally concentrate on the thing at hand, but under the artificial restraints of school life they may lose the ability and desire to do this and become unstable in the direction of their activities. The evidence of fatigue must be watched for and prevented by assigning short tasks to be completed and these followed by short periods of relaxation. The tasks should be gradually lengthened, commensurate with the development of the child, and made more difficult, otherwise the changing activities symptomatic of fatigue will become crystallized into an unstable personality characterized by faulty thought and aimless purpose.

In other words, the natural concentration exhibited by the child should be encouraged and his normal activities should be wisely directed toward useful ends.

A child who has already developed a faulty habit in this respect should be trained so as to be less easily distracted and his natural ability to concentrate should be strengthened by directing his energies along productive lines. Failure to do this will allow the habit to become fixed because of the unconscious tendency of such a child to find an outlet for his excessive energy along the path of least resistance. This leads to an inability to adjust himself to the normal routine of life in later years.

Children normally concentrate on the thing at hand, but under the artificial restraints of school life they may lose the ability and desire to do this and become unstable in the direction of their activities. The evidence of fatigue must be watched for and prevented by assigning short tasks to be completed and these followed by short periods of relaxation. The tasks should be gradually lengthened, commensurate with the development of the child, and made more difficult, otherwise the changing activities symptomatic of fatigue will become crystallized into an unstable personality characterized by faulty thought and aimless purpose.

In other words, the natural concentration exhibited by the child should be encouraged and his normal activities should be wisely directed toward useful ends.

A child who has already developed a faulty habit in this respect should be trained so as to be less easily distracted and his natural ability to concentrate should be strengthened by directing his energies along productive lines. Failure to do this will allow the habit to become fixed because of the unconscious tendency of such a child to find an outlet for his excessive energy along the path of least resistance. This leads to an inability to adjust himself to the normal routine of life in later years.

Children normally concentrate on the thing at hand, but under the artificial restraints of school life they may lose the ability and desire to do this and become unstable in the direction of their activities. The evidence of fatigue must be watched for and prevented by assigning short tasks to be completed and these followed by short periods of relaxation. The tasks should be gradually lengthened, commensurate with the development of the child, and made more difficult, otherwise the changing activities symptomatic of fatigue will become crystallized into an unstable personality characterized by faulty thought and aimless purpose.

In other words, the natural concentration exhibited by the child should be encouraged and his normal activities should be wisely directed toward useful ends.

A child who has already developed a faulty habit in this respect should be trained so as to be less easily distracted and his natural ability to concentrate should be strengthened by directing his energies along productive lines. Failure to do this will allow the habit to become fixed because of the unconscious tendency of such a child to find an outlet for his excessive energy along the path of least resistance. This leads to an inability to adjust himself to the normal routine of life in later years.

Children normally concentrate on the thing at hand, but under the artificial restraints of school life they may lose the ability and desire to do this and become unstable in the direction of their activities. The evidence of fatigue must be watched for and prevented by assigning short tasks to be completed and these followed by short periods of relaxation. The tasks should be gradually lengthened, commensurate with the development of the child, and made more difficult, otherwise the changing activities symptomatic of fatigue will become crystallized into an unstable personality characterized by faulty thought and aimless purpose.

In other words, the natural concentration exhibited by the child should be encouraged and his normal activities should be wisely directed toward useful ends.

A child who has already developed a faulty habit in this respect should be trained so as to be less easily distracted and his natural ability to concentrate should be strengthened by directing his energies along productive lines. Failure to do this will allow the habit to become fixed because of the unconscious tendency of such a child to find an outlet for his excessive energy along the path of least resistance. This leads to an inability to adjust himself to the normal routine of life in later years.

Maxims of a Modern Maid

By Marguerite Mooers Marshall

WOMEN are divided between the type who yearns to be a man's first love and the type that thanks heaven daily she isn't!

Why does the writer or speaker who says "In a word" immediately proceed to use ALL the words in the bright lexicon of the eloquent? In one American town, according to the Department of Labor, three-quarters of the wives earn money. In every town that proportion EARNs money, but it frequently isn't PAID.

Men have written most of our histories—but women have made them. Awful thought for today: you are nearer the bill for the Easter hat than you ever were before.

The best "chaser" for an unhappy love affair is another love affair. Anybody can understand the doctrine of vicious atonement who watches a husband's fate at dinner the day the cook left, the laundress didn't come, the grocery delivered soap instead of soup and Mrs. Jones called wearing a hundred-dollar spring suit.

If love is a tragedy, marriage can be depended upon to supply comic relief.

SERVICEABLE SMOCK

FOR centuries the peasants in France have worn a loose garment known as a smock, and no one challenged their right to a smock of that garment. Then some time in the last century artists—sculptors and painters—began wearing this type of garment in their ateliers and studios until that shapeless, comfortable garment came to suggest all that one associates with French studio life. It was not until the Atlantic took to the smock as a matter of convenience as well as because of association.

So far from appearing extreme or outlandish, sloppy or graceless, the type of garment known as the smock is the most natural thing we could don for garden wear and sport wear and wear about the house. So the smock is being revived for this spring and summer.

One of the many million dollar oil concerns in Texas has a woman secretary, Miss Florence M. Sterling, who handles her position in a manner that would bring praise to any man.

Each person who takes part agrees to bring a duplicate of the article which to her way of thinking has proved most indispensable in her own household. Sometimes, as we all know, the most useful household appliance is not at all the most costly one, or the one upon which our best hopes in this way were based. On the other hand, there are certain standard articles which no efficient housekeeper can afford to be long without, and any one of these may be the pleasure of her friends to present in advance. The nature of the article is not revealed and much amusement is produced when on the day of the party each guest produces her chosen convenience. Everything from a pair of gas pliers to a percolating coffee pot may be included.

If there are novelties among the presentations the future bride may be asked to explain them. If she has experienced as yet in domestic science her answers will afford some good laughs.

This shower being of the nature of an experience gift presentation, a pleasant pastime with which to follow it would consist in asking each woman to write down in 500 words her most amusing or most ludicrous experience as a housekeeper. A simple prize might be given for the one which produces the biggest laugh.

IN BASTING VELVET: When basting velvet, use sewing silk instead of cotton. When the stitches are removed there will be no traces.

PARIS, March 5.—One could almost guess that the description of a frock called, "when grandmother was eighteen," would be—taffeta and ruffles. EVA A. TINGEY.

CUT off the leather top of an old soft shoe and sew it between several thicknesses of cloth. Then you can iron with perfect comfort and without burning the hands.

To clean pots and pans, take one ordinary clothespin, split in two. The soft wood will not scratch them as metal does, and it can be burned when soiled.

If you need to keep cheese any length of time, you may prevent mould from appearing on the cut surface by coating it thinly with butter.

When cooking very sour fruit, such as cherries or cranberries, add a very little salt to each quart and it will take about one-half as much sugar.

Often, when boiling eggs, the white comes through the shell and spoils the taste of the egg, through its appearance. This may be prevented if a teaspoonful of salt is put into the water before boiling.

If, after washing and drying your fruit jars, you will put a small piece of paper in each jar before screwing on the top, they will not have that musty smell when opened. The paper collects all the moisture.

Often, when boiling eggs, the white comes through the shell and spoils the taste of the egg, through its appearance. This may be prevented if a teaspoonful of salt is put into the water before boiling.

If, after washing and drying your fruit jars, you will put a small piece of paper in each jar before screwing on the top, they will not have that musty smell when opened. The paper collects all the moisture.

Often, when boiling eggs, the white comes through the shell and spoils the taste of the egg, through its appearance. This may be prevented if a teaspoonful of salt is put into the water before boiling.

If, after washing and drying your fruit jars, you will put a small piece of paper in each jar before screwing on the top, they will not have that musty smell when opened. The paper collects all the moisture.

Often, when boiling eggs, the white comes through the shell and spoils the taste of the egg, through its appearance. This may be prevented if a teaspoonful of salt is put into the water before boiling.

If, after washing and drying your fruit jars, you will put a small piece of paper in each jar before screwing on the top, they will not have that musty smell when opened. The paper collects all the moisture.

Often, when boiling eggs, the white comes through the shell and spoils the taste of the egg, through its appearance. This may be prevented if a teaspoonful of salt is put into the water before boiling.

If, after washing and drying your fruit jars, you will put a small piece of paper in each jar before screwing on the top, they will not have that musty smell when opened. The paper collects all the moisture.

Often, when boiling eggs, the white comes through the shell and spoils the taste of the egg, through its appearance. This may be prevented if a teaspoonful of salt is put into the water before boiling.

If, after washing and drying your fruit jars, you will put a small piece of paper in each jar before screwing on the top, they will not have that musty smell when opened. The paper collects all the moisture.

Often, when boiling eggs, the white comes through the shell and spoils the taste of the egg, through its appearance. This may be prevented if a teaspoonful of salt is put into the water before boiling.

If, after washing and drying your fruit jars, you will put a small piece of paper in each jar before screwing on the top, they will not have that musty smell when opened. The paper collects all the moisture.

Often, when boiling eggs, the white comes through the shell and spoils the taste of the egg, through its appearance. This may be prevented if a teaspoonful of salt is put into the water before boiling.

If, after washing and drying your fruit jars, you will put a small piece of paper in each jar before screwing on the top, they will not have that musty smell when opened. The paper collects all the moisture.

Ruth Takes a Little Flyer in Hubby, Preferred.

one proposition and making it—than the way you've been doing."

"Good for you, Mrs. Seymour. Now listen to your wife, she knows what she's talking about."

"First," said Wally with resignation.

"Ten thousand a year," said Wiggins, "and full management of my New Hampshire mills."

"Twelve thousand—and my Vermont outfit," said Miner.

Tate said nothing.

"Well?" said Wiggins.

"You embarrass me, gentlemen," said Wally. His head was feeling light; he was inclined to believe he was delirious. But Ruth stood there smiling at him, and he knew it was real.

"Mr. Tate hasn't made you an offer," she said. "I'm going to," said Tate. "You see, I really want him, and I've a notion those offers of the boys don't appeal to him. I've a notion it will take something besides salary to get him. Suppose you make me a proposition, Seymour—one that you'll stand behind."

Wally considered. What did he want? What would he have dreamed if he could have made a dream come true?

"Salary isn't so darned important," he said. "Though I've got to have $10,000 at least. But I don't want to tie down to a business I'm not in."

Tate nodded.

"How does this sound to you?" Ten thousand a year for salary and $50,000 stock in the mills. They were to be held by you and to be paid for out of the dividends—to be mine if I make the mill earn more than $75,000 a year."

"Now I do want you," said Tate. "There's the kind of proposition I would have made myself. Young man, you've traded horses. Shake."

"When do I go to work?" Wally asked.

"Now," said Wally. "I'll wake up," he began.

"You're awake," she said. "I waked you, that's all. And Wally, I'm mighty proud of you."

"I guess," said Wally, "that we're mighty proud of us."

"Let it go that way," Ruth said. "I've never been kissed by a man that earns $10,000 a year—to say nothing of stock in the company."

There was a slight pause.

"Now you have, by gosh," said Wally. "Was it better than the old kind?"

"So long as it is you," she said seriously. "It doesn't matter whether it's a $10,000 kiss or a 10-cent one."

THE END.

(Copyright, 1919, By Clarence Budington Kelland.)

"Now, and your first job is to bring Mrs. Seymour and help eat the dinner Wiggins has got to buy."

"That night the Seymours returned to their hotel through air that was tinted pink and flavored with rose leaves. Ruth was happy, happier than she had ever dreamed a human being could be, and Wally—Wally was intoxicated with it all."

"You did it," he kept repeating. "You did it—all of it. You marvel—you genius!"

"I didn't. It was you. All I did was to—make you be yourself. Now you are the real you. If you hadn't been, if you hadn't had the ability, do you think anything else could have captured those men?"

"You did it," he said stubbornly.

"I didn't do a thing but prove to you that it's easier to get a $10,000 job than a $1000 one. I just made a good job go hunt you instead of letting you hunt a poor job. Total cost to date, one hat, one necktie, $10 for a room and $2 for cigars."

"I'll wake up," he began.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

THE LAWYER.

A lawyer draws up wills and such,
And looses legal snarls;
But what has made him really rich,
Is other people's quarrels.
The business man, too wise to scrap,
(For fighting with his collars)
Goes out and hires a lawyer chap
To fight about his dollars.

The lawyer never gets hot up;
It doesn't help his case
To call some other man a pup,
Or smash him in the face.
And anyway his client's cause,
While near his heart, no doubt,
Is nothing that a man of laws
Need get chastised about.

And therefore, while the business man,
Enjoys serene repose,
The lawyer cheerfully will pan
His client's business foes.
He fights for his employer's pelf
Unstirred by rage or fury,
And, as he is unmoved himself,
He better moves the jury.

I have but little laid away,
But surely if I had
I always cheerfully would pay
A lawyer to get mad.
And while he fought my enemies,
And licked 'em fair and square,
I'd loiter amid the blossoming trees,
And never know a care.

THE REAL LOSER.

Mary Pickford wept when she got her divorce, but considering everything we should think her ex-husband should have done the weeping.

LET THE LAW TAKE ITS COURSE.
A New York judge has sentenced two thieves to terms of 32 years each.

A Kindly Light.

The clergyman of a poor parish was showing a rich lady round, hoping to touch her heart and so receive a big check for his people.
"We are now passing through the poorest slums," he said, as the car turned into a side street. "These people have little to brighten their lives."

"I must do something for them," sighed the lady, adding to the chauffeur: "James, drive the car slowly, and turn on the big lamps."—Tit-Bits.

A Dud.

While he was making his way about his platoon one dark night a Sergeant heard the roar of a "G. I.
Can" overhead and dove into a shell-hole. It was already occupied by a private, who was hit fully in the wind by the noncom's head. A moment's silence—a long, deep breath, and then—
"Good Lord! Is that you, Sarge?"
"That's me."
"Thank heaven! I was just waiting for you to explode."—American Legion Weekly.

and it will be necessary to graft interstitial glands on them to enable them to serve out their terms.
EVEN IF HE DIDN'T HAVE IT LONG.

Anyway, Lansing was a good fellow when he had it.
(Copyright, 1920.)

Not to Be Beaten.

An Alabama dandy, who prided himself on being able to play any tune on the banjo after he had heard it once, perched himself on the side of a hill one Sunday morning and began to pick the strings in a workman-like manner.

It chanced that the minister came along. Going up to Moses he demanded harshly, "Moses, do you know the Ten Commandments?"
Moses scratched his chin for a moment and then, in an equally harsh voice said:

"Parson, yo' don't think yo' kin beat me, do yo'? Jest yo' whistle the first three or four bars and I'll have a try at it."—Harper's

Then It Happened!

"I wonder if you could" mused the Rummy, as he poured a little wood alcohol into his seltzer.
"You wonder if you could what?"
demanded the Barkeep, as he yanked a gun out of the drawer behind the bar.

"Why, I wonder if you could call a love letter a writ of attachment?"
replied the Rummy, as he headed for the door.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Faithful Ouija

LITTLE JOSEPHUS
NATHANIEL MESNORT
HAD A NOSE THAT WAS CHUBBY AND STUBBY AND SHORT,

THE DOCTOR WHO CAME WHEN JOSEPHUS WAS BORN, SAID "HIS FACE IS AS SWEET AS THE BREAK OF THE DAWN!"

NOW, ANATOLE ZACHERY
ANGUS McNICKLE
HAD A NOSE THAT RESEMBLED AN OVERGROWN PICKLE,

SAID THE DOC TO HIS MOTHER, "YOU MAY AS WELL KNOW IT,
THE POOR KID IS QUEERED, HE WILL NEVER OUTGROW IT."

THE BOYS HAD A RACE
WHEN THE YEARS DRIFTED BY,
AND JOSEPHUS WAS SURE THAT IT ENDED
A TIE,

BUT WERE HAPPY TO SAY
AS THIS STORY WE CLOSE
THAT ANATOLE ZACHERY
WON BY A NOSE!

"SAY, POP"—ALKALI IKE CAN DO ALL POP SAYS.—By C. M. PAYNE

IS THE LITTLE FELLOW QUALIFIED TO REFEREE A BOXING BOUT? WE'LL SAY HE IS.—By BUD FISHER

An Offender.

"I suppose poor Mrs. Jabbs will be arrested under the Sunday law."
"Good gracious! What has she been doing?"
"I understand some secret investigator got into her pantry and discovered that her preserves were working."—Baltimore American.

ADVERTISEMENT

WHEN YOUR COM-PLEXION BEGINS TO FADE WITH AGE

You Can Preserve That Clear, Smooth Tint of Youth

By the Occasional Use of the BLACK and WHITE Beauty Treatment.

As the years go by, women lose that baby-like softness and the rosy tint which they possessed in their girlhood days. Face powders, rouge and toilet creams all help and serve as a mask for their faded countenances—but such results serve only for a few hours.
The Black and White Beauty Treatment, however, makes mothers and daughters appear to be sisters—and its retiring, you bathe your face with Black and White Soap, then apply the creamy Ointment and wash off with Black and White Soap. You'll be so well pleased with this beauty treatment that a package of both Black and White Ointment and Soap will always have a place on your dressing table.

Your druggist sells both Black and White Ointment and Black and White Soap at 50c each or the manufacturers will send both on receipt of 50c.

A sample literature and Black and White Birthday and Dream Book will be sent you free if you clip and mail this advertisement to BLACK and WHITE, Box 913, Memphis, Tenn.

BLACK and WHITE OINTMENT
Clears the complexion

Safe Milk
for Infants and Invalids HORLICK'S
THE ORIGINAL
MALTED MILK
Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form.
For infants, invalids and growing children.
Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body.
Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged.
More nutritious than tea, coffee, etc.
Instantly prepared. Requires no cooking.
Substitutes Cost YOU Same Price

ADVERTISEMENT

"MOUTH BATH"
MORE IMPORTANT THAN SKIN BATH
This Fact Especially Noticeable in the Prevention of Influenza.

The "Mouth Bath" is highly recommended as a preventive against germ diseases such as influenza. Dentists should be visited regularly and their advice as to the care of the mouth carefully followed. Prompt attention to the diseased conditions of the teeth, and the frequent use of ZE-PYROL (obtainable only at better drug stores) as a mouth cleanser, are considered by dentists as most effective measures to prevent infections and pyorrhea.

This "Mouth Bath," when taken with care and regularity, will prove a help in keeping disease germs from making an entry into the body by the belief of dentist and doctor.

It is stated that, among the most commonly fatal diseases, typhoid epidemics and influenza are general pathological results of a built up.

sums of money in improving and developing the province. His constructive ability as manifested in its rebuilding was for him the admiration of the Japanese people.

Berlin, Germany — Count Johann Heinrich von Bernstorff testified at the opening session of the national assembly's investigation into war guilt that the German government, late in 1916, deliberately wrecked President Wilson's efforts for peace.

Dr. von Bethmann Hollweg, former imperial chancellor, and Dr. Karl Hei-rich, former finance minister, were present at the hearing.

former German statesman, who had been in the United States for some time, was asked to tell President Wilson that

Any time of day
BAKER'S COCOA is welcome

Do not make the mistake of thinking that cocoa is only an occasional drink. It is so valuable a food beverage, so rich in the elements of nutrition, so delicious in flavor, and so wholesome that it should be used regularly and often.

Booklet of Choice Recipes sent free.
WALTER BAKER & CO. Ltd.
Established 1780. DORCHESTER, MASS.

LOFTIS BROS. & Co.
ESTABLISHED 1858
NATIONAL CREDIT JEWELERS
DIAMONDS AND WATCHES
ON CREDIT AT CUT PRICES
SECOND FLOOR CARLETON BLDG. 6TH & OLIVE ST.
PHONE MAIN 97 AND SALESMAN WILL CALL STORES IN LEADING CITIES

Soc
VOL. 72. N
Kenyon W
for Pro
Inte
Iowa Senator
nounceme
Includ
A St
THE desk was which dignity Building, and oak sat a big b
good deal of pleasur
"The idea," he merit, anyway. It's tion in regard to po least a fortnight."
And it is now,
party nominees for nounce the names of
they are elected.
"If you have not with national polit
ing," Senator Kenyo will not mind bein average cabinet made. You may vastly. Is a few you may even hav
puzzled by some pa tient. You may he self why the Presid with the whole Arm to choose from, pick he did pick. You m
he could have done probably could couldn't."
He paused an im
paradox sink in. Th has a friend who is ants for one of the tions. "Your candi
to be running very gain, which is of time I'm speaking o
ent I make no co ought to be polit
far as their strengt task. So we will tal past and the future
conflicting interest
"In the past the make cabinet appo
ter for the party only insiders prese
don't mean to imph power exercised choice of the adv
pointments were ne merit system, the place. But the tg bring pressure to de dents to urge him
crations of party ex use his cabinet app political debts his contracted during Job of getting him
"That saying
these were uniform in the bad old past so glad to have a
that the plan I pr
ture will wholly el long as men or gro
to find some way conflicting interest their efforts for achievement, the and-ill-scratch-wit
the sporting pages
top, and men will gained with each other.
gains involving pu
arouse more curio than they used to."
"Hasn't the pub Kenyon, "a right to before it votes for as much need for tion concerning the
be his official adv
cutive chiefs of h as it has for adv
concerning the ec ideas and ideals h
to support and mai
needs have becom nized that a part think of going to b
date of a campaign
a carefully prepar lished platform of proposed policies forehand. Then sonality and capab
of the men who ar election? A tent before election—
getting.
Would include Ph
"I shall endeavor
in the Republica resolution pledg days before elect new will announce men he will appe
he is elected.
campaign such a would be more eff of legislation wh
he passed bef attention will only one at Chicago o should go through